burgh, Wotton and Stonfeld with all members and hamlets and other profits and the hundred of Wotton, to hold as fully as her esquires William Wilcootes, now deceased, and John Norbury held the same by letters patent, surrendered, rendering 127l. 10s. 6d. yearly at her receipt at Westminster and supporting all charges except fees and annuities previously granted, the stipend of the chaplain of the manor of Wodestoke and the repairs of the houses and enclosure of the park of the same manor. And grant, because the said John has surrendered letters patent of the king to himself and the said William, that the said Thomas may have the said manors and hundred for his life, paying the said farm to the king after the death of the king’s consort.
By K. and for 20s. paid in the hanaper.

July 14. Grant to the abbot and good men of Whitby of quayage for ten Westminster. years.

July 16. Commission, by mainprise of John Mapilton of the county of York, Westminster. clerk, and John Grene of the same county, to William Hilton, esquire, and Joan his wife of the keeping of two parts of the manor of Westhacche, co. Wilts, in the king’s hand by the death of Thomas Missenden and by reason of the minority of the heir of the late duke of Norfolk, to hold from the death of the said Thomas until All Saints next, answering to the king for the issues received in the mean time if they be adjudged to the king.

July 10. Whereas the priory of Bernewell, of the king’s patronage, through Westminster. bad governance has become charged with great pensions and corrodies and burdened with debt and many of its manors, lordships, lands, possessions and churches have been indiscreetly demised at farm and otherwise alienated; the king has taken the priory into his hand during pleasure and committed the keeping of it and its manors, lands, rents and possessions to his brother Thomas Beaufort, John Wakeryng, clerk, John Cokeyn and John Rome, clerk, so that all issues beyond the necessary maintenance of the prior and convert and their servants shall be expended on the relief of the priory and all pensions, corrodies, farms and other charges shall cease until it be relieved, and has granted protection with clause nolumus. By p.s.

July 12. Assignment, during pleasure, to Henry Leserope, ‘chivaler,’ for Westminster. the time of his stay at Westminster or London in attendance on the king’s person in Parliament or other councils, of the towns of Ham-stede and Hendon, co. Middlesex, for the harbouring of his men and servants and horses, provided that he pay for the necessaries taken by him.
