1411.

Normandy to confirm to him and his assigns for 50 years the estate which he has in the manors of Newenton Longevill, Horewode, Okelée and Whaddon and a yearly rent of 8l. 6s. 8d. in Notlee, co. Buckinghain, which the abbot of Notlee is bound to render yearly to the said manor of Newenton, and the manor of Westhanney, co. Berks, with all other lordships, lands, mills, woods, rents, services, annuities, portions, pensions, alms, commodities and other possessions of the priory in England with all franchises, privileges, liberties, quitances, rights and customs, which he holds during the war with France by letters patent; so that he pay 10l. yearly to a monk of the priory of Longevill Giffard to be sent by the prior and convent into England to dwell in the manor of Newenton Longevill to celebrate divine service there daily for the souls of their benefactors.

By p.s.

Sept. 20.
Westminster.

Grant to Richard Whityngton (as on p. 298).
By p.s.

Sept. 9.
Westminster.

Licence for the king’s widow Margaret late the wife of Edward Latymer, who held certain lands jointly with her of the king in chief on the day of his death, of which she is now seised, to marry the king’s esquire Nicholas Merbury.

By p.s.

Sext 9.
Westminster Palace.

Notification to the council of the king’s son the king of Norway in the city of Northberne that, whereas lately on account of divers injuries done to the king’s lieges by certain men of the Hanse at the parts of Berne the king ordered the bailiffs of the town of Boston and the keepers of the passage in the port not to allow any of the Hanse to cross or send their goods or merchandise to foreign parts, and subsequently nine persons of the Hanse in the said port sued the king and council for a relaxation of the restriction, the king by advice of the council has caused the restriction to be prorogued until the said nine persons offer security for themselves and their fellows of the Hanse in the parts of Berne that they will stand to the ordinance of the king’s council in the matter and that they of the Hanse will not do any harm to any lieges of the king in the said parts of Berne.

[Fædera.]
By K.

1410.

Westminster.

Commission to Edmund Oldhalle, Simon Baret and John Bokenham to enquire into the report that divers lands, rents, possessions and fruits of the church of Dokkyng, co. Norfolk, parcel of the alien priory of Munstre Lovell, in the king’s hands on account of the war with France, have been wasted by the late farmers and others.