conduct of the king's said adversary he went to France with 46 tuns of wine and other goods, merchandise and gear for sale it happened that the count of St. Pol seized him with the same and detained him in prison until at his suit a judgement was given in the court of Parliament of France, that he and the wines and goods should be delivered by virtue of which he was delivered from prison but the said earl still detains the wines and goods, and afterwards when he obtained another safe-conduct from the king's said adversary he was captured by one John de Cane, lieutenant of Boulogne, with the letters of safe-conduct and put in prison within the abbey of Valeroyes, out of which he escaped and crossed to Croteye, in which place the said lieutenant afterwards seized him and took him to the town of Monsterell and detained him in fetters until the date of the last safe-conduct expired, and afterwards he was put to ransom and was released at the request of the king's ambassadors last sent to the marches of Picardy, and although many requests have been made by the said ambassadors for restitution of the said wines, goods, merchandise and gear he can get none, as the ambassadors have informed the king: the king grants to him reprisal and marque so that he may take to his own use the bodies of the king's enemies of France and their goods, merchandise and moneys until he have restoration of the said wines, goods, merchandise and gear or their value with due satisfaction for his damages and expenses, extending to the sum of 1000l. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 18.

Nov. 24. Licence, for 16 marks paid in the hanaper by John atte Vise and Westminster, Thomas his son, William atte Crouche and Elias Whyte, for them to grant 68 acres of land and 26 acres of pasture in Bradegare and Borden, not held of the king, to the chaplain and scholars of the college of Holy Trinity, Bradegare, co. Kent, in mortmain in aid of their maintenance.

Nov. 15. Licence, for 20 marks paid in the hanaper by Thomas Pattesde, clerk, Robert Cook, clerk, Peter Purly, esquire, and Walter Sterne, for Simon de Felbrigg, 'chivaler,' William Applyerd, John Wynter, Oliver Groos, Thomas Derham and Richard Alfred to enfeoff them of their manor of Caxton, co. Cambridge, held in chief.

Nov. 16. Pardon to Roger Mendham, 'ffuller,' indicted of having on Saturday, the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, 9 Henry IV, by night in 'le Northwarde' of Colcester entered the close and garden of Richard Podeney and opened his door there and carried off a piece of 'greyrusset' of Thomas Colchestre of the length of 24 yards and the breadth of 2 yards, worth 45s, placed on the tenter (tentorium) of Richard.

Nov. 30. Presentation of John Lovell, vicar of the church of Thornham, in the diocese of Norwich, to the church of Ekeney, in the diocese of Lincoln, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Lawe.

Dec. 1. Appointment, during pleasure, of Thomas Roppe as controller of the great and petty custom, the subsidy of woolls, hides and wool-fells and the subsidy of 3s. on each tun of wine and 12d. on the pound