1411. in the port of Chichester and all ports and places adjacent, receiving the accustomed wages and fees, so that he execute the office in person. By bill of the treasurer.

Nov. 28. Pardon to John Maverey of Southbrente, co. Devon, the younger for all felonies and trespasses committed by him, except treason, murder, rape and common larceny. By p.s.

Nov. 29. Grant for life to Henry Somer of the office of keeper of the exchange and mint within the Tower of London and the keeping of the coinages of gold and silver within the realm, receiving 2s. 6d. daily for his wages from the issues of the exchange with all other fees and profits pertaining to the offices as Robert Hethecote and Andrew Neuport had, which offices, wages, fees and profits do not exceed the value of 50l. yearly. And whereas in his petition to the king through which the king by letters patent granted to him the office of chancellor of the Exchequer for life there is no mention of the value of the office as the statute requires, and the office with the fee of the seal of the Exchequer and other fees and profits does not exceed the value of 100l. yearly, the king pardons to him all offence in this and, because he has surrendered the letters in Chanecery, grants to him for life the office of chancellor of the Exchequer with the said fees and profits and what pertains to it.

Dec. 5. Writ of aid for William Somereotes, whom Thomas Chaucer, chief butler, has appointed as his deputy in the port of Boston. By p.s.

Dec. 3. The like for the following:—

John Bradbrigge in the ports of Scford, Shorham, Kyngeston.
Witheryng, Delle and Chichestre.

Dec. 11. Signification to R. bishop of Hereford of the royal assent to the election of John Bury, canon of the house of St. James, Wygemore, of the order of St. Augustine, of the patronage of Edmund, son and heir of Roger de Mortuo Mari, late earl of March, tenant in chief of Richard II. a minor in the king's keeping, as abbot of that place.

Dec. 3. Grant, with the assent of the lords spiritual and temporal and at the request of the commons of the realm in the present Parliament, that William de Laysyngby, convicted of treason before William Gascoigne and other justices, be restored to the common law and may enter on and retain his possessions. By pet. in Parl.

MEMBRANE 17.

Nov. 25. Grant for life to William Catton of the office of bailiff of the town of Rye with all fees, profits and emoluments; in lieu of a like grant to Thomas Gyles of Dover by letters patent, surrendered. By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because Henry V on 23 October in his first year granted to him the office of bailiff of Wynchelse for life.
