1412.

Feb. 26. Grant in mortmain to Richard Wrangle and John Knyght, chaplains of the chantry founded in a chapel on the north side of the chancel of the church of St. Paul, London, across the tomb of the king's father John, duke of Lancaster, and the king's mother Blanche his consort, of a yearly rent of 24 marks from the manors of Bowes and Derneford, the tenements of Polehous and Forde and all other lands, rents, services, meadows, feedings, pastures, marshes, weirs, fisheries and woods in Edelmeton, Totenham, Enfeld, Chyngford and Waltham, cos. Middlesex and Essex, which were lately acquired by Thomas, bishop of Durham, and others (see p. 372) and which the king had of their gift and feoffment to the effect that he should grant the said rent to the said chaplains and the said manors, lands and tenements to the dean and chapter of the said church.

By K.

MEMBRANE 35.

Feb. 18. Whereas the king's kinsman Edward, duke of York, holds of the king in chief to himself and the heirs of his body two parts of the lordship of Tyndale with all manors, towns, lands, rents, services, annuities, knights' fees, advowsons, forests, markets, warrens, parks, woods and fisheries with all liberties and franchises, jurisdictions, possessions and members and the reversion of the third part which Joan, late the wife of Edmund his father and now the wife of Henry Lescreope, holds in dower, the reversion of the whole lordship belonging to the king in default of issue of the bodies of Edward and Richard his brother; the king releases to him and his heirs and assigns all right in the same, and grants licence that he may grant the same to the king's knight Thomas Gray of Wark for life, with successive remainders to Thomas Gray elder son of the latter and Isabel daughter of the said Richard and the heirs of their bodies, the king's said kinsman and the heirs male of his body, the said Richard and the heirs male of his body and the said Thomas Gray, 'chivaler,' and his heirs and assigns; the premises being of the value of 200 marks yearly, a little more in time of peace and a little less in time of war.

By p.s. and for 80l. paid in the hanaper.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Feb. 15. Westminster.

Exemplification of the tenours of the following:—

1. A petition (translated into Latin from French) to the king and council by the merchants of the town of Lenn frequenting the parts of Birne in Norway that their lordships should ordain that the merchants of the fellowship of the Hanse residing and coming in the realm at Boston should be bound before the king by a recognisance in a reasonable sum, both for all their fellows visiting and residing in the said parts of Norway and for themselves visiting and residing in the realm, that all English merchants residing in and visiting the said parts of Norway may trade there according to their liberties and franchises without disturbance from those of the fellowship of the Hanse such as has often happened before, viz.:—

Firstly, whereas the said English merchants by virtue of the privileges, liberties and franchises granted to them of old by the king of Denmark, Norway and Sweden were residing for