
May 8.

whereas the church of Wyllesford, in the diocese of Lincoln, of the advowson of the abbot and convent of Brunne of the order of St. Augustine, at the supplication of Lucy, countess of Kent, was appropriated to the abbot and convent and their monastery, in which the body of Edmund, earl of Kent, sometime her husband, lies buried, by the pope without the king's licence; the king, at the supplication of the countess and for 10 marks paid in the hanaper, pardons the trespasses in this and grants licence for the abbot and convent to appropriate the church in mortmain when it is vacant, provided that a vicarage be sufficiently endowed and a competent sum of money from the fruits of the church distributed yearly among the poor parishioners by the ordinary.

By K.

May 8.

Grant to the king's knight Ralph Rochefort and John Glaston, chaplain, in lieu of a grant to them by letters patent dated 20 February, 7 Henry IV. (Vol. III. p. 157), surrendered, and because Ralph has released to the king his wages of 18 marks yearly due to him for his office of sewer within the household, of the keeping of the manor of Newent Longevill with all other manors, lands, meadows, rents, woods, mills, portions, pensions, rights, commons, lordships, issues, emoluments, revenues and inheritances belonging to the priory of St. Faith, Longevill, to hold during the life of Ralph during the war with France, rendering only 50 marks yearly to the king's knight Thomas Erpyngham during his life and supporting all charges. By p.s.

Aug. 6.

Inspeccimus and confirmation of letters patent dated 1 February, Westminster. 1 Richard II. inspecting and confirming to Mary Hervey letters patent dated 29 December, 47 Edward III, granting to her certain lands in Budefeld, co. Gloucester; and grant that if her kinswoman Maud Honle survive her Maud shall have the lands in aid of her marriage so long as they are in the king's hands, without rendering anything. By p.s.