Membrane 21—cont.

1412.

May 27. Westminster. Whereas on 23 July, 10 Henry IV, with the assent of the council, the king granted to the burgesses of the town of Great Jerneth in aid of the construction of the port of the town 100l. yearly for the next five years from the subsidy of 3s. on the tun and 12l. on the pound in the same port at the hands of the collectors, and they were paid accordingly at that rate until Michaelmas, 11 Henry IV, and afterwards the collectors of the subsidy of 3s. on the tun and 12l. on the pound granted to the king in 11 Henry IV paid to them 164l. from this latter subsidy, viz. 100l. for the year 12 Henry IV and 64l. at the same rate from Michaelmas last until Whitsuntide last, and the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer will not allow these payments of 164l. because the grant of the first subsidy by the commons of the realm only lasted until Michaelmas, 11 Henry IV; the king grants to the burgesses the said 164l. thus paid in aid of the construction of the port.
