1421.

Oct. 1. Grant to the mayor of Dover of murage for seven years, to be applied to the enclosure of the town by the supervision of the constable of the castle of Dover or his lieutenant.

Oct. 3. Pardon to John Manby of Scardeburgh, son of Richard Manby of Scardeburgh, for all treasons, felonies, murders, insurrections, rebellions, misprisions and trespasses committed by him, except treason against the king's person, rape and common larceny. By p.s.

Oct. 10. Grant for life to the king's servant John London, 'flisser,' of 6d. daily from the custom of worls, hides and wool-fells in the port of Boston; as the king's servant William Dewesbury, who lately had the same for life of the king's grant, is dead. By p.s.

Oct. 14. Presentation of John Slatton, vicar of the church of Kynardley, in the diocese of St. Asaph, to the church of Whityngton, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the minority of Fulk son and heir of Fulk Fitz Waryn, tenant in chief, in the king's keeping, on an exchange of benefices with John Hampton.

Oct. 12. Pardon to the king's kinsman Thomas Mountagu, earl of Salisbury, and Eleanor his wife, one of the sisters of the king's kinsman Edmund, earl of Kent, deceased, of all debts, accounts, farms, arrears, receipts, of moneys, fines, issues, amerceements, claims, actions and demands and all reliefs exacted from them or due to the king for any of their ancestors. By p.s.

Oct. 13. Protection with clause nolumus, for one year, for the good men of the town of Harowe, assigned for the livery of the king's kinsman Richard, lord of Grey, the king's chamberlain, while he is staying at London or Westminster, and their men, lands, rents and goods. By K.

Oct. 17. Commission, during pleasure, to John de Blencowe of the office of controller of the customs and subsidies due to the king from any goods and merchandise in the county of Cumberland, wools, hides and wool-fells excepted, provided that he execute the office in person. By bill of the treasurer.

Oct. 17. Pardon to James Wolman, indicted of having on Monday after the Nativity of St. Mary, 12 Henry IV, broken the close of John Evyas at Sydyingbourne and stolen a horse of his worth 40s. there. By p.s.

Oct. 20. Exemplification, at the request of Thomas Chaucer, of the tenours (French) of a petition by the commons of the realm in Parliament at Westminster, 11 Henry IV, and the answer of the king. [Rolls of Parliament, III. 646.]