1412. Grant for life to the king's serjeant of the wardrobe John Baudewyn of the office of keeper of the king's beds and cloths within his privy palace of Westminster with a chamber within the same by the chapel of the king's son the prince for his dwelling with a garden pertaining to it, receiving at the Exchequer 6d. daily for his wages and 13s. 4d. yearly for his robe and 2d. daily for the wages of a groom, with other things and profits belonging to the office, as John Flete, deceased, had.

Nov. 3. Presentation of John Cook, chaplain, to the church of Lassyndon, of the immediate jurisdiction of H. archbishop of York.

Nov. 4. Inspeccimus of one part of an indenture tripartite (French) concerning divers grievances and debates long pending between the abbot and convent of Croyland, lords of the town of Wendlyngburgh, and the tenants of the town, and at last referred to the arbitration of Thomas Walsh, knight, John Wodeville, Roger Perewych and John Tyndale, dated at Wendlyngburgh, Thursday after the Circumcision, 8 Richard II, under the common seal of the abbot and convent and the seals of the arbitrators and of John Hunte, John Burton, Roger Gybon and Richard Smyth, good men of the town. A varying custom called 'le ayeld' claimed by the abbot and convent is adjudged to be too grievous and commuted to a yearly payment of 4l. at the Exaltation of the Cross; a sum of 100s. claimed by the abbot and convent at each vacant called 'un faynyngfe' shall not be levied from the tenants against their will; the abbot and convent shall appoint a collector of their rents and services in the town at their own cost and peril; the abbot and convent, as parsons of the church of Wendlyngburgh, shall repair the chancel of the church at their own cost from the gable by the high altar to the gable adjoining the body of the church; the tenants shall have common in a holm called 'labbotys holm' from haytime until Candlemas as they have had before; they shall have their common fishery in their common water pertaining to the town as they have had before; and the abbot shall cease from suits.

Nov. 4. Licence, for 40 marks paid in the hanaper by John Tomelyn, parson of the church of Wynterborn Wast, for him to grant in mortmain six messuages, two tofts, 128 acres of land and a moiety of an acre of meadow in Wynterborn Martyn and Chernystre, not held of the king, to the abbot and convent of Abboteshbury to find a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the church of Wynterborn Martyn for the good estate of the said John and John Roland, clerk, and Thomas Frome and for their souls after death and the souls of the father and mother and ancestors of John Tomelyn.

Nov. 11. Grant to the king's widow Margaret late the wife of John Darey, 'chivaler,' tenant in chief, of the issues of her dower from all lands late of her said husband and taken into the king's hands by his death, to hold from the day of his death.

MEMBRANE 22

Nov. 3. Ratification of the estate which the king's clerk John Makworth has as prebendary of Preston in the cathedral church of St. Mary, Salisbury.