and sheets and other jewels and necessaries and household utensils to the value of 20 marks of the goods of the parson and churchwardens.

By K.

Whereas 688l. 10s. are due to the king's servitor William Trystour, the king's saddler, for divers parcels of his mystery delivered into the great wardrobe to the king's use, for which he has divers bills sealed with the seals of the following persons, viz. 24l. 14s. 2d. in the time of William Lovency, late wardrobe keeper, 48l. 12s. 6d. in the time of Richard Clifford, late wardrobe keeper, and 182l. 3s. 4d. in the time of Thomas Ryngwode, now wardrobe keeper, and he has surrendered the bills in Chancery for delivery to the treasurer of England: the king grants to him 81l. and 103 marks respectively yearly from the farms of the alien priories of Lodres, co. Dorset, and Caresbrok in the Isle of Wight, co. Southampton, and their lands, possessions and appurtenances, demised at farm for those sums, from Michaelmas next until he be fully satisfied. By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because Henry V granted to him the same on 12 November, 2 Henry V.

Pardon to William Capon of Spaldyng alias William Capon of Holbech dwelling in Spaldyng, one of the king's tenants of the town of Spaldyng, for having with others on Thursday after Michaelmas, 13 Henry IV, at Holbech Hyrn broken the house of John Sybsey of Holbech Hyrn and carried off his goods to the value of 100l. By p.s.

Grant for life to the king's servitor and officer within the honour of Pountfreit Richard Buny of 6d. daily from the custom of woods, hides and wool-fells in the port of Kyngeston on Hull: in lieu of a like grant to the king's servant John Otteley by letters patent, surrendered. By p.s.

Grant for life to the king's servant John Birky, one of the yeomen of the larder, of a messuage and 40 acres of land in Solyhull, co. Warwick, called 'Caldefordestenement,' late of Richard Caldeford, clerk, and in the king's hands by reason of a grant in mortmain without licence made by William Hawe, John Horpas and others by virtue of a feoffment of the same Richard to one John Ans, then chaplain of the chantry of St. Alphege in the church of Solyhull, to celebrate divine service there for the souls of Hugh le Despenser and Sybfl his wife, for which the king has been answered at the Exchequer of 40s. yearly according to an extent made by an inquisition taken before the late escheator in the county and 3s. 4d. of increment: to hold without rendering anything. By p.s.

Grant of power to all admirals and others, as the king's lieges and their fellows, merchants of London, have shown how lately they sent certain factors and attorneys with a great quantity of wools and other merchandise to the value of 21000l. in divers ships to the parts beyond the mountains to take to the port