1413.

June 15.  \textit{Inspeximus} and confirmation to William Sherwynd of letters patent dated 17 November, 2 Henry IV, granting to him for life 10l. yearly; so that he be not retained with anyone else.  By K.

June 23.  Grant to Henry Don and his heirs and assigns of all his lands, rents, services, liberties, franchises and other possessions within the principality of Wales, the duchy of Lancaster, Goweresland and the bishopric of St. Davids, which came into the hands of the king's father because of his rebellion and are still in the king's hands, to have as he had them before the rebellion; and grant to him of all debts due to him before the rebellion.  By P.s.

June 12.  \textit{Inspeximus} and confirmation to Roland Leynthale and John Merbury of letters patent dated 19 January, 1 Henry IV, granting to them for life 40l. yearly; so that they be not retained with anyone else.  By K. & for 6 marks paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 30.

June 12.  \textit{Inspeximus} and confirmation to Richard Wydevyle and Joan his wife of letters patent dated 9 January, 10 Henry IV \cite{Calendar, 1408-1413, p. 43}; so that Richard be not retained with anyone else.  By K. & for 5 marks paid in the hanaper.

June 13.  Grant to William Criche, the prior, and the convent of Montacute co. Somerset, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, to the end that they shall be bound to pray for the good estate of the king and for his soul after death and the souls of the king's father and progenitors, that all future priors shall be elected by the convant without collation or institution by the abbot of Cluni and whenever the priory is vacant by death, deprivation, cession, resignation or deposition or otherwise the convent shall have free election, and all priors so elected shall be perpetual, and the prior and convent shall have a common seal and power to implead and be imploed; and grant that the prior may obtain confirmation of this from the pope and the abbot of Cluni and other persons.  The priory was founded by the king’s progenitors as an alien conventual priory under the abbot of Cluni, who is of the power of France, and the priors of old were instituted by collation of the abbot, and the priory was taken into the hands of Edward III. on account of the war with France and was in the hands of Henry IV on that account until by letters patent he restored it to one Francis de Baugiaeo instituted by the abbot, and afterwards, the present prior having been consecrated by Thomas, archbishop of Canterbury, by authority of the apostolic see on account of the schism between the pope and those of France, the said king by other letters patent granted that the prior and convent should be denizen.  By K.

June 12.  \textit{Inspeximus} and confirmation to Margaret, lady of Roos, of letters patent dated 6 March, 4 Henry IV, granting to her for life six bucks yearly; so that she be not retained with anyone else.  By K. & for ½ mark paid in the hanaper.