1414.
Feb. 16. Commission to William Lasyngby and Robert Tirwhit to enquire into the report that divers wards, marriages, reliefs, escheats, customs and subsidies and divers issues and profits pertaining to the king are concealed from him in the counties of Lincoln and York. By K.

1418.
Aug. 10. Commission to Thomas Carrewce, John Tiptot and the mayor of Dertemouth to arrest John Hauley of Dertemouth without delay and bring him before the king in Chancery.

The like to John Scardcburgh, esquire, John Weston and Philip Cokkes to arrest Nicholas Ayllesford, canon of the abbey of Begham, Richard Brydde, Thomas Hamond, John Burwell, canon of Dereford, Richard Bedewynd and John Gunderby of Petersfeld.

Aug. 12. Commission to John Tiptot, lieutenant of the admiral of England, and the mayor of Dertemouth, on complaint by Richard atte Wode, citizen of London, that when he had bought 1500 quarters of salt from Geoffrey Lebourleon, William Loungnon and John Provost of Brittany for a great sum of money at Dertemouth and paid the greater part of the sum to them and was prepared to pay the residue as soon as he had full delivery of the salt, and he only received 400 quarters of salt, they departed secretly from Dertemouth to Brittany without satisfying him of the residue, to seize a ship of the said Geoffrey called Notre Dame of Geraund now in the port of Dertemouth and all its gear and deliver the same to Richard or his attorney after taking security from him that he will restore the same as soon as he is satisfied of the residue of the salt.

Aug. 24. Commission to William Waldern, Thomas Carnyka, clerk, and Richard Harweden, monk of Westminster, because out of reverence for God and St. Peter, in whose honour the abbey of Westminster is dedicated, and Edward the Confessor and divers of the king's progenitors resting in the abbey, and because as it pleased the Most High the king took the insignia of royalty in the abbey, the king intends to provide with the goods given to him by God for the construction and repair of the nave of the abbey, which has long suffered ruin and still remains unfinished, to take stonemasons, carpenters and other workmen and labourers for this and timber, stone, iron and lead and other necessaries.

By K.

July 27. Commission, until All Saints next, to Richard Hokewold to go to sea with three barges and sufficient mariners and other men arrayed for war against the king's enemies and to take victuals for them.

By K.

Sept. 24. Commission to John Benet to take stone, lead and iron and other necessaries for the work of the king's manor of Shene and carriage for the same.