1413.

Nov. 12. Inspeiximus and confirmation to Hugh Cok of an indenture (French) of Henry, lord of Bealmont, dated at his castle of Folkyngham, Tuesday after Easter, 13 Henry IV, granting for life to the said Hugh his trumpeter two messuages in the town of Folkyngham with two bovates of land in the same town, which William Champe formerly had, and a yearly rent of 40s. at the hands of the receiver of the town, with power of distraint, provided Hugh serve him for life.

By p.s. & for ¼ mark paid in the hanaper.

Nov. 18. Pardon to Agnes the wife of John Foys for the death of Robert Westminster. Lange on Tuesday, the Assumption of St. Mary last. By p.s.

Nov. 26. Notification that the king has inspected a writing of Robert de Westminster. Naillyngherst, clerk, under his seal, granting to Walter de Wotton and Isabel his wife and Walter their son and their heirs and assigns a moiety of the manor called Reveshales in Estmerseye with rents and services of freemen and bondmen, reliefs, escheats, marriages, fisheries, chases, view of frank-pledge and all other appurtenances.

June 12. Inspeiximus and confirmation to John Robersart of letters patent Westminster. dated 17 November, 1 Henry IV, granting to him for life 100l. yearly; so that he be not retained with anyone else.

For 10 marks paid in the hanaper.

Nov. 25. Inspeiximus and confirmation to John Colvyle, 'chivaler,' of letters patent dated 4 December, 1 Henry IV, granting to him for life 40l. yearly; so that he be not retained with anyone else.

For 5 marks paid in the hanaper.

Nov. 30. Pardon to the king's lieges of the commonalty of the county of Caernarvan in North Wales, both English and Welsh, now in England, Wales or elsewhere, for 500 marks which they will pay at the exchequer of Caernarvan, viz. 41l. 13s. 4d. in each of the next eight years, for all insurrections, treasons, rebellions, felonies, misprisions, oppressions, conspiracies, confederacies, maintenances, champerties, ambidextries, concealments, falsities and deceptions and other trespasses committed against Henry IV and the king and the crown and the laws and customs of the parts and marches of Wales; and pardon to them of all debts and arrears due to Richard II, Henry IV or the king before Thursday after All Saints, 13 Henry IV, on which day certain of them and afterwards all others surrendered to peace. But all grants, sales and alienations of lands and goods of rebels made by the king's father or by the king when prince or after he undertook the governance of the realm shall be valid.

By K. & C.

The like for the county of Angleseie, for 800 marks, payable at the exchequer of North Wales in eight years. By K. & C.

The like for the county of Meryonnyth, for 300 marks, payable at the exchequer of North Wales in six years. By K. & C.

The like for the county of Flynt, for 500 marks, payable at the exchequer of Chester in eight years. By K. & C.