Jan 26.  Whereas Thomas Lakenham, late master, and the brethren of the hospital of St. Bartholomew in Westsmythfeld, London, on 23 November, 13 Henry IV, granted certain tenements in West-smythfeld to Robert Cryngelford for life and to his executors or assigns for three years after his death, so that if he should die within ten years of the said 23 November he should have the tenements to himself, his executors or assigns for the term of eleven years from the said 23 November; and the tenements have come into the king's hands by reason of his forfeiture and are of the value of 4 marks yearly; the king grants them to John Preston and his executors or assigns to the said value during the said estate and term, so that he answer for any surplus and support all charges. By K.

Jan. 30.  Pardon to John Ludbrook of Mounstrell, co. Leicester, 'iremonger,' indicted of certain felonies and treasons in the county of Middlesex before William Roos of Hamelak, 'chivaler,' and his fellows, justices of oyer and terminer, and convicted and condemned to death.
