1414.
March 18.  Inspeximus and confirmation to the burgesses of the town of Westminster. Montgomerie of letters patent dated 27 June, 1 Henry IV [Calendar, 1399-1401, p. 309], inspecting and confirming earlier letters patent and charters.

For $\frac{1}{2}$ mark paid in the hanaper.

March 6.  Grant to the king’s servants John Wodeham, William Hether and John Heggeman, yeomen of the king’s horses (valetis eorum perhendinationis nostre), and ten other serving men of the same, of the sum of the forfeiture for the escapes of four felons on Monday, 12 February last, from the gaol of Redyng.  By K.

1413.
April 1.  Inspeximus and confirmation to Robert Claydon of letters patent dated 19 December, 1 Henry IV [Calendar, 1399-1401, p. 173], inspecting and confirming letters patent dated 12 March, 22 Richard II; so that he be not retained with anyone else.

By K. and for 2 marks paid in the hanaper.

Dec. 25.  Inspeximus and confirmation to Philippa Waldyf of letters patent dated 8 December, 3 Henry IV, granting to her for life 10l. yearly; so that she be not retained with anyone else.

By K. and for 2 marks paid in the hanaper.

July 20.  Grant to the king’s brother Humphrey and the heirs of his body of the castles and lordships of Pembrok, Tenibegh and Kilgaren and the commotes of Ostrelawe, Treyn and Seynclere in Wales, with all due franchises, royalties, liberties, fines, ransoms, customs, knights’ fees, advowsons, fisheries, prizes of wines and other profits and commodities, as Francis de Court, ‘chivaler,’ an alien, had them of the grant of the king’s father.  By K.

1414.
March 10.  Inspeximus and confirmation to the burgesses of Stafford of letters patent dated 9 January, 1 Henry IV [Calendar, 1399-1401, p. 174], inspecting and confirming earlier letters patent and charters,

For 100s. paid in the hanaper.

1413.
Dec. 9.  Exemplification, at the request of Monetoun de Bernardos, citizen and merchant of Bayonne, of the tenour of the enrolment [Close Roll, 1 Henry V, m. 11d.] of a writing of John Crosse, proctor and attorney of Jame Bodiquar alias Bodekar, dated 8 May, 1412, and a memorandum of the acknowledgement of the same on 8 December, 1 Henry V.

1414.
Feb. 28.  Whereas Clement Spice and others were lately enfeoffed of the manors of Lexdon, Cage, Crixheth and Great Teye, co. Essex, by virtue of a grant of Walter Fitz Wautier, ‘chivaler,’ deceased, to hold with all revenues, issues and profits until certain debts of his were paid and certain matters of conscience fulfilled, as appears by fines levied in the king’s court and charters enrolled in Chancery, and Clement partly satisfied the debts and matters of conscience from the issues until Walter Fitz Wautier, ‘chivaler,’ son and heir of the said Walter, took the manors at farm from the feoffees and promised to satisfy the residue of the debts but died before he had made any payment, and after his death the king’s father granted to John, late earl of Somerset,