Membrane 6—cont.

Nov. 5. Grant to the abbot and convent of Westminster that they shall be Westminster, quit of collecting tenths, taxes or other subsidies granted to the king or his heirs.

By p.s.

Membrane 5.

Oct. 1. Grant for life to the king's servant Thomas Porter, whom the king Westminster, has appointed one of the yeomen of the crown, of 6d. daily from the issues of the county of Gloucester.

The like to each of the following:—
William Malbon, from the county of Northampton.
John de Legh, from the issues of the bailiwick of Morleston, at the hands of the sheriff of Nottingham and Derby.
William Custans, from the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.
William Myners, Owin de Kawardyn and David de Kawardyn, from the county of Stafford.
John Acclane, from the county of Wilts.
John Parkyn and John Rys, from the counties of Huntingdon and Cambridge.
Jordan de Worsley, from the counties of Nottingham and Derby.
Charles de Holand, from the county of Leicester.
John Burnham (vacated by surrender) and Robert Cliderhowe, from the county of Southampton.
Robert Couper, from the county of Northampton.
Robert Sanbache, from the county of Salop.
William Somerkotes, from the county of Lincoln.
John Bromley and William Sadeler, from the counties of Warwick and Leicester.
John Clerkson, from the county of Sussex.
William Gannesley, from the county of Northampton.

Mandate in pursuance to the sheriffs.

1414.

Feb. 26. Grant for life to the king's esquire William Fitz Henry of 20l. yearly Westminster, from the fee-farm of the priory of Coventre called Erlespart.

By K.

Mandate in pursuance to the prior.

1413.

Oct. 8. Grant to the king's kinswoman Eleanor, countess of Salisbury, Westminster, of the keeping of all lands late of John Pokeswell, tenant in chief, during the minority of Roger Pokeswell his son and heir with the marriage of the latter, without rendering anything to the king, so that she find a competent maintenance for the heir and maintain the houses and buildings.

By K.

1414.

Feb. 27. Commission to John Wotton, master of the college of Maydeston, Kenilworth Castle.
and Richard Clyderowe, esquire, of the keeping of all temporalities of the archbishopric of Canterbury from the death of Thomas Arundell, last archbishop, so long as they are in the king's hands, provided that they be accountable to the king for the issues.

Vacated because otherwise below.

By K.

March 6. Grant to John Wodeham and others (as on p. 170). Westminster.

By K.