and inducted and continued his possession during his whole life, and afterwards they presented Richard ap Morgan, monk of the order of St. Benedict, to the priory, but he could not be admitted on account of an ordinance in Parliament at Westminster, 1 Henry V, for the resumption of possessions of aliens, and the king on 26 January last [Pipe Roll, 1 Henry V, p. 1, m. 3], granted that he might accept the presentation and have admission, institution and induction, provided that he would answer yearly at the Exchequer for 20l. for the priory during the war with France, and now he has complained to the king that he cannot have the priory because on 24 October last by other letters patent [Ibid. m. 9] the king granted the keeping of it to one Henry Gwyn from Michaelmas last during the war at a rent of 20l. yearly and 10 marks of increment, and Henry has surrendered these letters; the king grants to Richard that he may have the priory and that Henry shall be acquitted of the keeping and of the farm and increment.
