1414.

July 14. Grant for life to the king's servant John Asshall of the office of porter of the castle of Berkhamstede with wages of 2d. daily at the hands of the king's receiver there and other due profits and commodities as Roger Bygg, deceased, had. By p.s.

July 17. Presentation of Thomas Beef, parson of the church of Westbokelond, in the diocese of Exeter, to the church of Holford, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Stokekkursy being in his hands on account of the war with France on an exchange of benefices with Nicholas Hoper alias Leche.

July 2. Presentation of John Gerveys, parson of the church of Ichene, in the diocese of Winchester, to the vicarage of the church of Westangmeryng, in the diocese of Chichester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien abbey of Fescampe being in his hands on account of the war with France, on an exchange of benefices with William Wylly.

July 14. Assignment for life to the king's uncle Thomas, earl of Dorset, for the time of his stay at Westminster, of the town of Stratford Langthorn with the parish of Hamme, co. Essex, for the harbouring of his men and servants and horses. [Proeera.] By K.

July 17. Pardon to Walter Whiteyull of Uppyngham, indicted with Robert of the Hyll of Norton of having on Saturday before SS. Peter and Paul, 12 Henry IV, murdered one John Verderer of Uppyngham in a field called 'Wilgershaw.' The like to the said Robert. By p.s.

Sept. 9. Presentation of Walter Batyn, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of St. Thomas the Martyr, Cowyk by Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the alien priory of Cowyk being in his hands.

Aug. 26. Presentation of John Frankelayn, parson of the church of Holt, in the diocese of Worcester, to the church of Bulwell, in the diocese of York, on an exchange of benefices with John Osmond.

July 28. Grant to the king's liege Walter Palgrave that, notwithstanding the late ordinance that in the town of Calais no English person or other liege of the king of the adjoining country shall marry any French person or other alien enemy or adversary of the king without the king's licence, he may marry one Joan Crosse, born in Flanders, who was taken in her infancy by her parents to the town of Sandwich and dwelt there with them for a long time and afterwards in Calais married an Englishman called Richard Crosse, a soldier of the town, and proposes to continue her stay in the said town or elsewhere under the king's allegiance; and acceptance of her as the king's liege henceforth. By p.s.