1414.

July 28. Grant for life to Thomas de Holden, in recompense of his good service to the king's father and the king's grandfather the duke of Lancaster in the office of mason, of the office of surveyor of the king's works of the castle of Chester, the walls of the town of Chester and the castles of Flynt, Rudland, Conwy and Beaumaris, receiving the accustomed fees and wages at the hands of the chamberlain of Chester and the mayor, sheriffs and murengers of the town and at the hands of the chamberlain of North Wales.

By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the chamberlain and the mayor, sheriffs and murengers.

Membrane 31.

By p.s.

July 29. Grant for life to the king's servant Thomas Tunbrigge, yeoman of the king's kitchen, of the office of the serjeanty of the sea water within the liberty of the town of Bristol, alias the office of 'waterbailiff' in the part of the town, receiving the accustomed wages, fees, commodities and profits, as Thomas Hunsome had while he lived.

By K.

Oct. 1. Grant to the king's servitor William Tropnell, serjeant tailor of the king's robes, of a house situated at Bainard's Castle, London; within the rent pertaining to the great wardrobe, to hold from Easter last during his office without rendering anything to the king, as John Dyndon had of the grant of Henry IV or Walter Rauf of the grant of Richard II.

By p.s.

Oct. 6. Grant to Louis Johan of the keeping of the manors of Tuderley and Lokerley, co. Southampton, from 7 December last as granted to William Mounteney, esquire, by letters patent dated 23 February last (see p. 164), surrendered.

By K.

Oct. 9. Grant for life to the king's servant William Warner of the office of Westminster, ranger of the laund of Benefeld and the bailiwick of Rokyngham within the forest of Rokyngham, with all fees, wages, profits and commodities belonging to it.

By p.s.

Membrane 39.

July 24. Grant for life to Henry Fitz Hugh, 'chivaler,' of 100l. yearly from Westminster. Tuesday after Epiphany last from the issues of the county of Lincoln.

By K.