mine of Aldeneston, current in the exchequer by the name of the mine of Carlisle, notwithstanding that for fifty years and more it has ceased profit to them; the king grants to him and his heirs and their tenants at will the said mine with all commodities, profits, emoluments, liberties, franchises and immunities as the miners have had, rendering yearly to the king and his heirs the ancient sum of 10 marks. By K.

Nov. 17. Grant to the bailiffs and good men of the town of Wyche of pavage Westminster for three years.

Nov. 7. Pardon to Thomas Tiberton for all felonies, trespasses and misprisions committed by him. By p.s.

Nov. 16. Presentation of William Reve, parson of the church of Tyngreth, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the vicarage of the church of Uphaven, in the diocese of Salisbury, on an exchange of benefices with Ralph Lambendon.

Aug. 30. Grant for life to the king’s knight Roger de Trumpyngton of all manors, messuages and lands late of John Niandesergh of Niandesergh, co. Westmoreland, ‘squerer,’ with meadows, feedings, pastures, parks, warrens, woods, hayes, mills, dovecotes, waters, fisheries, ways, paths, commons, rents, services, reliefs, escheats, waifs, strays, portions, pensions and other possessions, in the king’s hands by reason of his forfeiture for killing William Gerard of Burton, co. Westmoreland, ‘yoman,’ to the value of 600 marks yearly, without rendering anything to the king, provided that the sum of 100 marks be levied from the same each year for the maintenance of the estate of Margaret the wife of the said John so long as they are in his hands. By K.

Nov. 6. Grant for life to John Peryent and Joan his wife and Thomas their son, in lieu of a grant to them of the same by letters patent dated 8 January, 13 Henry IV, confirmed by letters patent of the king, surrendered, of the bailiwick of the honour of Peverell in the counties of Northampton, Bedford, Buckingham and Leicester, with all issues, profits, revenues, commodities and emoluments from the said 8 January and all in future to the value of 22 marks yearly, without paying anything to the king or rendering any account for the surplus if any. By K.

Oct. 7. Grant for life to the king’s servant William Bangor, one of the yeomen of the king’s kitchen, of the manor of Nettlebed, co. Oxford, which Thomas Hatfeld had while he lived by virtue of the king’s confirmation, to have from 29 March last to the value of 4 marks 6s. 8d. yearly. By p.s.