1414.

Membrane 7—cont.

Nov. 20. Licence, for 40s. paid in the hanaper by Master Roger Hoore, clerk, for him to grant in mortmain 30 acres of land in Stoke Edyth, not held of the king, to the chaplain of the chantry lately founded by him in the chapel of St. Mary, Stoke Edyth, by royal licence.

Membrane 6.

Oct. 21. Whereas on 6 November, 1 Henry V, by letters patent the king granted to Katharine Bromwich now the wife of Roger Leche, 'chivaler,' the keeping of the manor of Michelhampton pertaining to the alien abbess of Caen from Michaelmas last past during the war with France, rendering to the king 93l. 6s. 8d. yearly, and afterwards on 27 January by other letters patent granted this rent to the use of Joan, queen of England; the king grants the manor to his knight John Philippes and Alice his wife and the heirs of their bodies after the death of Katharine or whenever it should come into the king's hands, with all other lands, rents, services, parks, warrens, portions, pensions, woods, mills, meadows, pastures, waters, ways, paths, fisheries, knights' fees and advowsons, and all franchises, privileges, liberties, quittances, rights, customs and jurisdictions which the abbess and convent had before its seizure into the hands of Edward III, rendering to the king a rose at Midsummer, and also grants to them 100l. yearly at the Exchequer until they have full possession of the manor by virtue of the said grant after the death of the queen or are quit of the payment of 93l. 6s. 8d. yearly, and grants licence for them to cross beyond the seas by themselves or other persons with ten servants and twelve horses in any port of the realm to bargain with the abbess and convent for the purchase of the above. By p.s.

Nov. 28. Licence, in full satisfaction of a licence by letters patent of Henry IV [Calendar, 1403-1408, p. 472], by virtue of which they have founded the two chantries, for the alienation in mortmain by William Flete, 'chivaler,' and John Thymbley of 46½ acres and 4 perches and 12½ feet of land and 13s. 4d. rent in the said towns of Flete and Tidde to Richard Alone, chaplain of the said chantry in the chapel of St. Saviour, Flete, 54 acres, one rood, 15 perches and 10 feet of land in the same town of Tidde to John Derby, chaplain of the said chantry in the chapel of Holy Trinity, Tidde Herne, and by the said William of 10s. rent from a messuage of his in the street called 'le Cookrowe,' Bishop's Lene, to Roger Boughton, chaplain of the said chantry at the altar of St. Michael, Bishop's Lene, not held of the king in chief, the lands not exceeding the values of 48s. 11½d., 56s. 4½d. and 10s. 6½d. yearly respectively, as found by an inquisition taken before Nicholas Tournay, late escheator in the county of Lincoln.

By K. & for 20l. paid in the hanaper.

Membrane 5.