1414.

Dec. 8.  Commission to John Everdou and William Hesill, auditors of accounts
Westminster, of the Exchequer, to audit all accounts of chamberlains, receivers, bailiffs and provosts and other ministers of the king in South Wales, receiving 5s. each daily for their wages and expenses from the day of their departure from the city of London until their return at the receipt of the Exchequer or at the hands of the chamberlains or receivers in the said parts, with fees or rewards as allowed in the time of Richard II. By bill of the treasurer.

Dec. 5.  Mandate to all admirals and others, at the supplication of John Westminster, de Waghen of Beverley, to seize all ships of the parts of Holland (etc. as on p. 189). [Fœdera.] By K.

Nov. 30.  Licence, for 16l. paid in the hanaper by the dean and chapter of Westminster, the cathedral church of St. Andrew, Wells, for the aliciation in mortmain to them by Master Thomas Frome, clerk, John Roland, clerk, and John Knyght, clerk, of 3s. rent in Yerdeleigh in the parish of Woky, not held of the king, in aid of the maintenance of fourteen mass priests (capellanorum annelliariorum) to celebrate divine service daily in honour of St. Mary and for the good estate of the same Thomas, John and John and Master Richard Drayton, canon of the same church, Simon Bailly and William Northelode and for their souls after death and the souls of Agnes late the wife of the said Simon and John Umfray and the fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters and all benefactors of the same Richard, Simon, William, Agnes and John Umfray in the nave of the church at the altar of St. Edmund on the south side, and by the same of the reversion of three cottages in the same town, not held of the king, which Richard Sawyer and Thomas Councyle hold for life, by the same and William Dodesham of the reversion of two messuages, four cottages, three shambles and a moiety of an acre of land in Welles, not held of the king, which the said Simon holds for life, and by the same Thomas Frome, John Roland, John Knyght and John Brent, vicar of the church of Woky, of the reversions of a shop with a solar built over it on the south end of a messuage containing in all four shops with four solars built over them in the said town of Welles which Richard Bray, 'barbour,' and Agnes his wife hold for life of the demise of the said William Northelode, three shops with solars built over them on the same messuage which William Clok, John Sherman and John Buk and Cristina his wife hold respectively for life of the demise of the said William Northelode, 6 acres of meadow in Blakford in the parish of Wedmore, not held of the king, which Thomas Dyngeherst holds for life of the demise of the said William Northelode, and 41s. rent in the same towns of Blakford and Welles which the said William Northelode and Alice his wife hold for life of the demise of the said donors, not held of the king, as found by an inquisition taken by John Warre, escheator in the counties of Somerset and Dorset, in augmentation of the maintenance of the same.

Membranes 24 and 23.

Westminster. [Calendar, 1408-1113, p. 413], granting to Edward, duke of York, the castle, town, lordship and manor of Okeham, co. Rutland, for life; as at the suit of William Burghchier, 'chivaler,' and Anne his