Dec. 11. Pardon to the abbot and convent of Sulby, co. Northampton, of Westminster, of the two tenths last granted to the king by the clergy of the province of Canterbury, extended at 39 marks; because they are indebted in 300 marks and more, and their church is so ruinous that they are not sufficient to repair it as is necessary, and the abbey is burdened by insufficiency of governance with divers corodies and by the death of their sheep and animals and the failing of their corn through great floods, and by misfortune their sheepfolds and sheep have been burnt, and they have come to great poverty.

Jan. 3. Whereas Richard Abberbury, 'chivaler,' and Alice his wife lately acquired for their lives from William Beek the manor of Cudlyngton, held of the king in chief, and entered thereon without licence; the king, by a fine of 20s. made by them, pardons the trespass in this and grants that they may grant the manor to the said William for their lives, he rendering yearly to them a red rose at Midsummer for six years from Michaelmas last and afterwards 50 marks, with power to them of distrain if the rent be one month in arrear and of re-entry if it be a quarter of a year in arrear or if the distrain be resisted by the said William and Thomas Chaucer or anyone else at their procuration and the rent not paid within fifteen days.

Inspeiximus and confirmation to Agnes the wife of William Burgoyne of letters patent dated 12 December, 1 Henry IV, exemplifying the tenour of the enrolment of letters patent dated 5 November, 1 Henry IV, granting to her for life two tunns of red wine of Gascony yearly.

By K & for 40s. paid in the hanaper.

Membrane 19.

Pardon to the burgesses and commons of the town of Newcastle on Tyne of two tenths and two fifteenths granted to the king in the last Parliament by the commons of the realm; because they are much impoverished by captures of their ships by the king's enemies of Scotland and others, sudden maritime tempests and divers costs
