Membra 31.

Whereas in the Parliament lately held at Leycestre the com-of the realm declared to the king that in case there were final p between him and his adversary of France in the future and on all possessions of alien priories in England were restored to the houses of the religious in the parts beyond the seas to which belong loss would happen to the realm and the king’s people of i the great farms and apps of money which would be rendered y year to year from the same possessions to the said chief houses at the beginning of the war between the said realms all the kn lieges were expelled from any possessions which they then had of king’s progenitors in the parts beyond the seas within the jurisdic tion of France by a judgement given in the said realm of France, an d this with the assent of the lords spiritual and temporal of the s Parliament at the request of the said commons it was ordained by king that all possessions of alien priories in the said realm of Eng.

should remain in the king’s hands for ever, except certain posses
