1415.

June 5. Grant for life to the king's nurse Joan Waryn of 20L yearly from the king's manor of Ystilworth. Westminster.

April 20. Commission to Nicholas Frost, 'bowyer,' to take 'bowyers' and other workmen, artificers and labourers pertaining to the mystery of 'bowyers' for the works of the king's bows in the city of London and elsewhere and timber called 'bowestaves' and all other necessaries and carriage for the same, with power of arrest. [Fœdera.]

June 4. The like to Nicholas Mynot, 'flechcr,' to take 'flechers' and other workmen, artificers and labourers pertaining to the mystery of 'flechers' to the number of twelve persons and timber for arrows and bolts (petiliis) and feathers, silk and wax and other necessaries.

June 12. Assignment, during office, to the king's clerk John Wakeryng, keeper of the privy seal, of the towns of Great Stanmere, Little Stanmere, Eggeswere and Kyngesbery for the livery of himself and the clerks serving the king under him in his office, as other keepers of the office have had. Westminster.

May 30. Appointment of the king's kinsman Richard, bishop of Norwich, as keeper of the king's jewels, and commission to him of authority to deliver by indenture to each of the lords, knights, esquires and other persons retained by several indentures to serve the king for one year on his present voyage and bringing bills under the sign manual and signet of the king's kinsman Thomas, earl of Arundel, treasurer of England, containing the sums to be received by them for the second quarter of the year, as many of the king's jewels as by his discretion and the agreement of the party shall be equivalent to these sums; in accordance with the agreement made with the king for security of payment of their wages for the second quarter, under the condition of restoring the jewels if the king wishes to acquit them within a year and a half and one month. [Fœdera.] Westminster.

May 21. Grant to the king's servants Thomas Porter, William Pecham, William Malbon, William Somercotes, William Kerby, John Burnham, Robert Clytherowe, Robert Coupere, John Broun and John Whitlok of all goods, late of William Stobyndon of the town of Canterbury, 'bocher,' forfeited to the king because he killed a liege of the king feloniously and fled, to the value of 100L, in recompense and full payment of their wages in arrear of the time when the king was prince and Simon Bache and John Iklyngton were treasurers of his household. Westminster.

June 13. Appointment, during pleasure, of John Ptesfen as controller of the custom and subsidy of wools, hides and wool-fells in the port of London, receiving the accustomed wages and fees, provided that he execute the office in person, with the keeping of one part of the coket seal. Westminster.