same church and other possessions spiritual and temporal belonging to the priory, of old parcel of the possessions of the alien abbot and convent of St. Remigius, Reynys in Champeyne, in the diocese of Rheims, and taken into the hands of Edward III on account of the war with France and still in the king’s hands and remaining to the king by virtue of the late ordinance in Parliament at Leycestre and demised by the king at farm to John Bally, prior of Lappeley, Richard Knyghtley and William Kane, monk, from Michaelmas, 1 Henry V, during the war with France at a rent of 42 marks yearly, of which 12 marks are assigned to the king’s mother Joan, queen of England, in dower and 20l. to the king’s esquire John Vale for life, to hold quit of tenths and other charges in frank almon in aid of the maintenance of the warden and chaplains and two clerks and 13 poor feeble men dwelling within the college, with all franchises, privileges, liberties, quitances, rights, customs and jurisdictions as the abbot and convent had; and licence for the abbot and convent to release the same to the warden and chaplains and their college, notwithstanding that they were granted by the king’s progenitors to the predecessors of the abbot and convent to find two chaplains celebrating divine service daily in the infirmary of the abbey before the infirm there, and for the church of Lappeley to be appropriated anew to the warden and chaplains and college, provided that a vicarage be sufficiently endowed and a competent sum of money from the goods of the church distributed yearly among the poor parishioners according to the statute. [Monasticon, VIII. 1403.]

By p.s. & for 100l. paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 5.

May 20. Licence, for 40s. paid in the hanaper by John Peryan, esquire, Westminster. Roger Westwode, clerk, Salomon Fresthorpe, John Fouler, clerk, Robert Okbourne, clerk, and Peter Thorpe, for John Hore of Cambridge, esquire, and Joan his wife and John Davy to enfeoff them of the manor or Lockele in the parish of Welleswes and the advowson of the church of Wellewes, held of the king in chief, and for them to re-grant the same to John Hore and Joan for her life and to enfeoff Thomas son of the same John Peryan of the same after her death, to hold to himself and the heirs of his body with successive remainders to John and Edmund his brothers and the heirs of their bodies.

June 16. Westminster. Grant, during office, to Roger Horton, one of the justices of the King’s Bench, for the better maintenance of his estate and his expenses in office, of 110 marks yearly at the Exchequer and two robes yearly, one with skin at Christmas and one with lining at Whitsuntide, beyond the accustomed fee.

By K.

The like to William Cheyne, one of the justices of the said Bench.

By K.

The like to William Lodyngton, one of the justices of the Common Bench.

By K.

The like to John Preston, one of the justices of the Common Bench.

By K.