1415.
July 6.
Westminster.

Membrane 3—cont.

Grant to the king's servant John Boteler, esquire, of the keeping of all lands late of Thomas Lucy, 'chivaler,' tenant in chief, during the minority of William his son and heir with the marriage of the latter without disparagement, and so from heir to heir, without rendering anything to the king and maintaining the houses and buildings and enclosures and supporting all charges. By K.

June 16.
Westminster.

Grant, during pleasure, to Roger Horton, one of the justices appointed to hold pleas before the king, of full power to receive cognisances from any persons who may wish to make them for the levying of fines before the justices of the Bench, and to certify them to the justices of the Bench, by whom they shall be received and fines levied accordingly. By K.

June 16.
Westminster.

Licence, for 10 marks paid by John Throkmarton in the hanaper, for Thomas, bishop of Worcester, to grant to him and his heirs 14 messuages, 2 carucates and 14 virgates of land and 20 acres of meadow in Throkmarton, parcel of the manor of Fladbury, held of the king in chief, parcel of the bishopric of Worcester, of the foundation of the king's progenitors and of the king's patronage, for a fee-farm to be rendered yearly to the bishop; and for the prior and convent of Worcester to confirm the grant. By K.

Membranes 2 and 1.

June 25.
Westminster.

Grant to the king's esquire John Wodehous and his heirs and assigns, in lieu of another grant to him by letters patent (see p. 57), surrendered, of the alien manor called the priory of Paunfeld, co. Essex, and manor called the priory or house of Welles, co. Norfolk, with all lands, rents, services, knights' fees and advowsons and other possessions in England with certain reservations (see p. 301), of old parcel of the possessions of the alien abbot and convent of St. Stephen, Caen in Normandy, due to remain to the king by virtue of an ordinance in Parliament at Leycestre, rendering to the king a rose yearly at Midsummer; and grant that he and his heirs and assigns shall be quit of all tenths granted to the king by the clergy of the realm and all tenths and fifteenths granted by the commons for the same, and shall have all franchises, privileges, liberties, quittances, rights, customs and jurisdictions in the same which the abbot and convent had; and licence for the abbot and convent to grant the same to him and his heirs and assigns. By K.

April 1.
Westminster.

Grant for life to the king's mother the queen, in part of her dower, of 1,000 marks yearly from the issues of the hanaper in recompense of the alien priory of Oterton, to the value of 266l. 13s. 4d. yearly, and yearly sums of 253l. 6s. 8d. from the keeping of the alien priory of Warc and the alien priory of Noion and Neuwerkmarck, 40l. from the keeping of the alien manor of Treveley, Chilham and Molesh and 104l. from the keeping of possessions of the abbey of Lyre, granted to her by letters patent (see p. 164), which the king wishes to resume into his hands in aid of the endowment of certain religious houses newly founded by him; and also 200 marks yearly from the first moneys from the custom of wool, hides, and wool-fells and the petty custom in the port of Kyngeston on Hull and 300 marks yearly