1415.

Membrane 42—cont.

King's chamber, by virtue of letters patent has delivered to him a crown called la Coroune Henri for security of all that will be due to him for himself and his retinue, in case the crown is not redeemed by the king or his heirs or executors on the day of the Circumcision.

1416–7, the duke and others to whom such jewels will be delivered by him may dispose of it at their will, provided that if the king cause it to be redeemed before that day the duke shall be bound to restore it whole. [Foedera.]

By p.s.

July 11.

By p.s.

July 10.

Grant to John Lincoln, parson of the church of Haddeley, co. Suffolk, who has lent to the king 100 marks and delivered them by the king's command to the king's kinsman Thomas, earl of Arundel, treasurer of England, for expenditure by the king's ordinance, that he shall have repayment of the said sum from the custom of wools in the port of Lenn after Midsummer last by the hands of John Bukworth and John Bokenham, collectors, according to the form of a tally levied at the receipt of the Exchequer on 8 July last.

By bill of the treasurer.

June 30.

Grant for life to the king's mother Joan, queen of England, of the manor of Langeley, co. Hertford, with any reversions belonging to it; in recompense of the castle of Hertford, which Henry IV granted to her for life and which the king with her assent has taken into his hands.

By K.

July 12.

Licence, for 5 marks paid in the hanaper, for William de Lodyngton, one of the justices of the Common Bench, to found a chantry of one chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in an ancient chapel built in honour of St. Mary in the town of Westbuterwyk within the parish of Ouston, and to grant in mortmain to the chantry in aid of his maintenance 2 messuages, 7 tofts, 30 acres of land, 6 acres of meadow, 10 acres of pasture and 24s. rent and 4 fisheries in the said town and the towns of Estbuterwyk and Dodythorpe, not held of the king in chief and not exceeding the value of 100s. yearly.

By K.

June 22.

Grant that for the repayment of 200 marks which Paul de Melan, merchant of Luca, has lent to the king for his present voyage and for the payment of 478l. 18s. 8d. due to him for certain cloths of gold and other merchandise bought from him by the king's esquire John Spenser, keeper of the great wardrobe, allowance shall be made to John Esgaston and William Sopere, collectors of the customs and subsidies in the port of Southampton, and John Holym and Thomas Lane, collectors in the port of Sandwich, for the customs and subsidies on wools and other merchandise of Paul taken out of the said ports and merchandise of his brought into the realm by the said ports for the next year. [Foedera.]

By bill of the treasurer.