CALENDAR OF PATENT ROLLS

1415.

Sept. 3. Commission, for half a year, to Roger Lardener to take 1000 quarters of wheat for the expenses of the household in the king’s present voyage beyond the seas and carriage for the same within the counties of Kent, Sussex and Essex. [Fœdera.]

Membrane 40—cont.

The like to John Fysshore of Henle within the counties of Southampton, Wilts and Berks.

Membrane 40.

July 7. Westminster. Confirmation of the estate which the king’s esquire William Porter has by letters patent (see pp. 144, 161) in the manors of Ledecombe Regis, co. Berks, Oﬀord Clugny, co. Huntingdon, and Manton and Tikesore, co. Rutland, with all knights’ fees, advowsons, members, messuages, granges, lands, meadows, pastures, woods, mills, waters, fisheries, ways, paths, commons, rents, services, portions, pensions and other possessions, profits and commodities, notwithstanding the ordinance concerning the possessions of aliens in the last Parliament at Leycester; and grant of the same to him and his heirs and assigns to hold by the service of rendering to the king a rose yearly at Midsummer; and grant that they shall have in the manors all such franchises, privileges, liberties, quitances, rights, customs and jurisdictions as the abbot and convent of Clugny had and free warren and chattels of fugitives and felons, and shall be quit of tenths, sixtents and other quota granted to the king by the clergy or commons of the realm.

By K.

July 10. Westminster. Grant that Thomas Craven, esquire, of the county of Suffolk who has lent 50l. to the king and delivered them to the king’s command to the king’s kinsman Thomas, earl of Arundel, treasurer of England, to be expended by the king’s ordinance, that he shall have repayment of the said sum from the subsidy of 3s. on each tun of wine and 12d. on the pound in the port of Lenn after Midsummer last at the hands of John Bukworth and John Bokenham, collectors, according to the form of a tally levied at the receipt of the Exchequer on 22 June last.

By bill of the treasurer.

The like of 50l. in the port of Ipswich at the hands of John Godeston and John Hawe, collectors. By bill of the treasurer.

July 14. Westminster. Provisional licence (as on p. 350) for the disposal of a great tabernacle of silver-gilt garnished with gold, late of the duke of Burgundy, garnished with 20 'balais,' 22 'saphiris' and 137 'perles,' delivered as security for the repayment of 860 marks lent to the king’s use, viz. 100 marks by the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Exeter, 100 marks by the mayor and commonalty of Exeter, 100 marks by John, abbot of Tavystok, 100 marks by John, prior of Plympton, 100 marks by John, prior of Launceston, [100 marks] from William, abbot of Bukfast, 100 marks from Robert Cary, esquire, 60 marks from Alexander Chambernour, esquire, 60 marks from John Bevyle, esquire, 10 marks from John Copleston, esquire, and 30 marks from the mayor and commonalty of Plymouth.

By p.s.