1415.
July 24. Provisional licence (as on p. 351) for the disposal by Robert Southamton, Chalouns, 'chivaler,' retained to serve the king on his present voyage, of a cup of gold, two bowls of silver gilt and a little basin of silver gilt delivered to him for security of 45l. 6s. 9d. that he should receive for the second quarter of the year. [Paxera.] By p.s.

Aug. 28. The like for the disposal by John, lord of Mauvra, of a great plate of silver gilt, a ring of gold with a beautiful 'rubic,' a tabernacle of silver gilt with an image of St. Mary, 19 'sauers' of silver gilt, 4 candles of silver gilt, a cup of gold, a chalice of gold with a broken paten and a basin and two 'cruetes' of gold, delivered to him for security of all that will be due to him.

By p.s.

Membrane 37.

July 14. Grant to Jocceus Brice of the county of Cornwall and his heirs of two parts of the manor of Bree, co. Cornwall, late of Robert Trusilin, justice of the King's Bench in the time of Richard II, and taken into the hands of the said king on account of his forfeiture, of the value of 100s. yearly, provided that they answer for any surplus. By p.s.

June 6. Inspectimimum and confirmation with the assent of the lords spiritual and temporal and at the request of the commons of the realm in the last Parliament at Westminster to the king's brother John, duke of Bedford, and the heirs male of his body of letters patent dated 24 November, 2 Henry V [p. 259]. By K. & by p. in Parl.

Oct. 13. Commission, during pleasure, to William Snew of the office of tronage and pesage of wools, hides and wool-fells in the port of Ipswich, receiving the accustomed wages and fees.

By bill of the keeper of the treasurership of England.

Oct. 6. Presentation of Richard Syngleto, chaplain, to the church of Chepyng, in the diocese of York.

Membrane 36.

July 29. Grant to the king's uncle Thomas, earl of Dorset, Henry Fitz Hugh, 'chivaler,' John Rodenale, 'chivaler,' and Robert Morton, esquire, and their heirs and assigns of a parcel of land lying within the parish of Twykenham within the king's warren in his lordship of Isthirngh containing in length 2800 feet from the north to the south as the king's ditch there extends and extended of old between the field of Twykenham and the said warren to the Thames and in breadth from the place where the said numbering began viz. from the said ditch to Twykenham on the west to the Thames containing 940 feet according to the site and measure of a ditch constructed anew on account of the religious, the priory of Oerton, co. Devon, and the king's manor of Treveley, Chilham and Molleshe, co. Kent, with knights' fees, advowsons, fairs, markets, liberties, franchises and all other profits and commodities, 110l. from the farm of the alien priory of Lancastr, and a weir (seweram) in the river Thames near Kyngeston called 'Hamwere' with an enclosure of meadow adjoining containing 2 acres.

By K.