Membrane 6—cont.

Isle of Wight and the castle of Karsbroke within it and all lordships pertaining to the same, except the constableship of the castle, to hold from the death of her husband with knights' fees etc. as he had by letters patent dated 5 December, 11 Henry IV [Calendar, 1408-1413, p. 152]: provided that she pay to the constable of the castle 20 marks yearly for his fee.

By K.

March 18. Commission to Richard Skelton son of John Skelton, 'chivaler,' of the keeping of all lands late of John de Leventones in the county of Cumberland, tenant in chief of Henry IV, during the minority of John his son and heir, paying 10l. to the king, maintaining the houses and buildings and supporting all charges. By bill of the treasurer.

Membrane 5.

Feb. 5. Whereas on 7 August last by letters patent by mainprise of Nicholas Wymbysh of the county of Nottingham, clerk, and John Blomvyle, clerk, the king committed to William Lasyngby the keeping of the manors of Upsale and Kytageyngton, co. York, and all other lands late of Henry Lescrope, late lord of Masham, in the wapentakes of Bridford and Allertonshire, co. York, pertaining to the king by reason of his forfeiture, to hold for 40 years from his death, rendering the extent; and afterwards by an inquisition taken before Peter de la Hay, escheator in the county, it was found that the said Henry held on the day of his forfeiture the manor and lordship of Upsale with its members and parcels, viz. Thornebergh, Kilvyngton and Oversyolton, with the advowson of the church of Kilvyngton, in his desmesne as of fee simple, and they are worth 23 marks yearly beyond reprisals and a yearly rent of 5 marks from the town of Kilvyngton payable to the abbot and monks of Byland; the king, because William has surrendered the said letters, grants to him the above for life from the time of the forfeiture, without rendering anything, notwithstanding that he has of the grant of the king when prince 20l. yearly at the hands of the receiver general.

By K.

1415. July 3. Grant to Robert Rikedon, Richard Fox and William Aleyn and their heirs and assigns of the manor of Pycheford, co. Salop, which the king lately had of the grant of Hugh Burnell, knight, lord of Holcote and Wyslegh, with knights' fees, advowsons, relics, escheats, mills, waters, ways, paths, fisheries, parks, woods, warrens, franchises, suits of court, rents, services and other liberties, commodities and appurtenances; under the condition that if Hugh or his heirs recover against the king or his assigns the manor of Hamme Upkyngeston, co. Surrey, and certain lands in the parishes of Kyngeston and Certeseye or any parcel thereof, which the king had of the grant of the said Hugh, by title before this date, the king may re-enter on the said manor of Pycheford.

By K.