May 19. Presentation of John Merston to the church or free chapel of Westminster. Wambroke, in the diocese of Salisbury.

May 4. Revocation, so far as concerns the alien priory of Tywardreyth, co. Cornwall. of letters patent [Calendar, 1413–1416, p. 101] in favour of John Cornewail, 'chivaler,' and Elizabeth his wife, William Peion, clerk, and John Malwayn, clerk. Henry IV by letters patent [Calendar, 1399–1401, p. 72] restored the priory to John Maslyn, and on his death John Rogger was admitted, instituted and inducted at the presentation of the king when prince of Wales and duke of Cornwall, the priory being conventual, as appears by a certificate of Edmund, bishop of Exeter, sent into the Chancery of Henry IV; and, on the complaint of the said John Rogger that he was hindered by the said John Cornewail and others by colour of the said letters patent, the king directed the sheriff to summon them to appear before
