counties of Surrey and Sussex, of 40l. from the moneys with which he is charged in his account at the Exchequer. By K.

June 3. Grant to the king's clerk Thomas Bridde, chaplain, of the prebend of Llan Gaillowe and Pillaile in Menelyth in the collegiate church of Aberguille, in the diocese of St. Davids. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to S. bishop of St. Davids.

May 27. Mandate to the escheator in the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk for the restitution of the temporalities of the bishopric of Norwich to John Wakerung, archdeacon of Canterbury, whose election as bishop Henry, archbishop of Canterbury, has confirmed and whose fealty the king has taken. [Feodera.] The like to the escheators in the following counties:—

- Essex.
- Middlesex.

Writ de intendendo in pursuance to the tenants.

June 16. Presentation of John Smyth of Byford, chaplain, to the church of Monyton on Wye, in the diocese of Hereford.

March 23. Grant to the king's esquire and servitor John Cheyne of the keeping of all lands late of John Brounyng, esquire, tenant in chief as of the earldom of Chester, in the county of Chester, not exceeding the value of 20 marks yearly, during the minority of John his son and heir, now of the age of 16½ years, with his marriage without disparagement to the value of 100 marks, and so from heir to heir, provided that he find a competent maintenance for the heir, maintain the lands, houses, buildings, gardens, woods and enclosures without waste, and support all charges. By K.

April 28. Inspeccimus and confirmation to Thomas Beauchamp of letters patent (French) of Edward, late duke of York, earl of Cambridge, Rutland and Cork, and lord of Tyndale, (1) dated at London, 7 February, 7 Henry IV, granting for life to the said Thomas his esquire an annuity of 10 marks from his inheritance in the custom in the port of London, and (2) dated at London, 14 November, 10 Henry IV, granting to him for life the office of keeper of the great park of Fastern and governor of the little park there, with the accustomed wages, profits and commodities and the office of lieutenant of the forest of Bradon with the issues of the courts called 'swany-motes' and all other profits and commodities as the duke's esquire William Worston had in his life of the grant of the duke's father; and grant that he shall have the same for life as the said William had. By p.s. & for 2 marks paid in the hanaper.

June 23. Whereas the king's highway extending from the town of Abendon to Dorchester, co. Oxford, across the river Thames by the places of Borford and Culhamford, by which river the king's lieges crossing there have had carriage and free passage with carts and horses and goods and merchandise time out of mind, is so inundated by floods that none of the king's lieges can make such carriage without peril of losing life and goods; the king grants licence for John Houchons and John Bret and the commonalty of the said town of Abendon