1416. Commission to Thomas de Morley to be the king's admiral of the fleet of ships and leader of the men at arms and archers going in them from the city of London and from any ports from that city to the port of Suthampton on the king's present voyage at sea or coming in any ships from the north to the said port, with power of arrest, until his arrival at the said port.

Membrane 22—cont.

July 6. Westminster. Commission to Thomas de Morley to be the king's admiral of the fleet of ships and leader of the men at arms and archers going in them from the city of London and from any ports from that city to the port of Suthampton on the king's present voyage at sea or coming in any ships from the north to the said port, with power of arrest, until his arrival at the said port.

Membrane 21.

June 31. Westminster. Revocation of the protection with clause volumus, for one year, granted on 13 July last by letters patent to Seman Champayne of Wynchelse, co. Sussex, esquire, alias of Newenheim, co. Kent, staying on the king's service in the company of Richard de Bello Campo, earl of Warwick, captain of the town of Calais, on the safe-keeping of the same, because he has returned to England and dwelt for a month in the county of Kent, as the sheriff has certified.

July 3. Westminster. Presentation of Henry Bysshop, chaplain of the altar of St. Nicholas with cure in the old church of St. Martin, Dover, in the diocese of Canterbury, to the vicarage of the church of Brensete, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Radford.

July 3. Westminster. Revocation of letters patent of Henry IV committing to John atte Wode the keeping of a toft called 'Shirnakkescroft' containing 4 acres of land in Northwyk by Worcester which Richard Elyot son and heir of William Elyot, who was outlawed in 37 Edward III in the Bench at the suit of Joan late the wife of John Spelly for the death of her husband, held after the death of the said William in his demesne as of fee; as at the suit of Richard de Norton, son of Margery, sister of William de Norton of Worcester, kinsman of William Elyot, and kinsman and heir of the same William Elyot, showing that the latter was seized in his demesne as of fee of the same by the name of a croft called 'Shirnakkescroft' containing 4 acres of land by Losemere and certain other lands in Northwyk by Worcester, and after his death, the petitioner being out of the county and ignorant of it, one Richard Elyot, bastard, pretending to be his son and heir, entered on the croft and lands and occupied them until they were taken into the hands of Edward III on account of an outlawry against him and others at the suit of Joan late the wife of John Spelly for the death of her husband by colour of an inquisition calling them 16 acres of land in Northwyk by Worcester and within the manor of Wyston taken before Leo de Perton, late escheator in the county, and afterwards, it having been found by another inquisition taken before the said escheator that 12 acres of land were held of the bishop of Worcester and the croft of John de Lutleton and the king had year, day and waste from them, the said king ordered them to be delivered severally to the said bishop and John, and the petitioner afterwards sued the croft as his right and inheritance out of the hands of the said bishop (sic) and continued his possession until he was removed by colour of an inquisition taken before William Wasseborn, late escheator of