1416.

Membrane 16—cont.

there, an appealer or approver and four other felons in the gaol of the castle of Cambridge, whose keeping he has, after scrutiny made of them, took John Smyth and Alice his wife, keepers of the gaol, by night in his absence, wounded them almost to death, and afterwards broke the gaol and escaped; the king pardons him this. By K.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Sept. 16. Commission to Edmund Brokysbourn to take partridges and other fowls for the expenses of the household.

Nov. 22. Commission, for half a year, to Thomas Solham and John Lurityng to take ‘plovers,’ partridges and other fowls for the expenses of the household and carriage for the same.

By bill of the treasurer of the household.

Membrane 15.

Aug. 1. Revocation of the protection with clause volumus, for one year, lately granted by letters patent to James Grigg, mercer, staying on the king’s service in the company of the king’s knight Ralph Rocheford, captain of the castle of Hammes in Picardy, on the safe-keeping of the same, because he delays in the town of Bristol, as the sheriff has certified.

July 26. Presentation of John Tybbe, chaplain, to the vicarage of Elyngham, in the diocese of Winchester.

July 27. Presentation of William Corston, chaplain, to the church of St. John, Yevelcheestre; in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

Presentation of John Daybure, chaplain, to the church of St. Peter at Pleas, in the diocese of Lincoln, vacant by the resignation of Richard Pernaut.

Aug. 5. Grant for life to the king’s clerk William Preston of the wardenship of the free chapel of St. George by the castle of York. By K.

July 10. Whereas the manor of Dounton called Chamburleysnbur, co. Bedford, held of the king in chief, was taken into the hands of Henry IV in his fifth year on the death of one Ivo Harleston by reason of the minority of John his son and heir and was extended at 10/10 before the escheator, and afterwards the said king by letters patent, for a certain sum paid in the hanaper, granted two parts of the manor with the keeping and marriage of the said heir to John Foljaunbe and John Pygot the younger during the minority of any heir and assigned the third part to Eleanor the wife of the said Ivo in dower, and now Eleanor is deceased; the king grants to Margaret Rokell the said third part with all issues from the death of Eleanor during the minority of any heir without rendering anything to the king, so that she find her share of the maintenance of the heir, maintain the