‘chivaler,’ on complaint by the prior of Holy Trinity, Repyndon, of the foundation of the king’s progenitors and of the king’s patronage, that Robert John Fynder of Fyndern, co. Derby, ‘gentilman,’ John Touk of Synden of the county of Derby, ‘gentilman,’ Walter Johannes-servant Fynder of the same county, yoman,’ Robert Savene of Repyndon, co. Derby, ‘bocher,’ and John Milner of Wyllyngton, co. Derby, ‘milliner,’ and other evildoers broke his closes at Repyndon, Wyllyngton and Potlok, cut to pieces the sluices of a weir of his at Wyllyngton and threw them into the water, assaulted his fellow canons there, fished in his several fishery at Repyndon, Wyllyngton and Potlok and carried off fish and other goods, depastured his corn and grass there and lay in ambush and threatened his fellow-canons and men, servants and tenants. For 20s. paid in the hanaper.

May 2. Commission to William Warner and John Warner his brother, parkers of Brigstok, to cut down 200 acres of underwood within the park in the least harmful places and in the foreign woods of the same by the supervision of Ralph Grene, keeper of the king’s parks and bailiwick of Brigstok, or John Reuell, ranger there, and sell the underwood and apply the money to the repair of the palings and enclosures of two closes in the king’s two parks of Brigstok and la Warhegge there and the king’s lodges within the same parks of Brigstok and especially of the new work of the king’s lodge of Akwelsyk in the little park of Brigstok, provided that they answer for any surplus at the Exchequer.

May 10. Commission to John Mylward to take mariners for the passage of the king’s kinsman John, earl of Huntingdon, the king’s lieutenant and leader of men at arms and archers at sea in the east and west, and the said men and archers in certain ships assigned to him.

May 20. Commission to William Tanfeld, dean of the king’s free chapel of Hastynge, and John Wandestre, canon of the chapel, to inform themselves about all prebendaries of the chapel who are bound to pay pensions during their absence according to an ordinance made by Master John Kyngton, clerk, one of the commissaries appointed by Henry IV to visit the chapel, and to sequestrate all fruits, rents, profits and emoluments belonging to the prebends of those who refuse to do so.

May 16. Commission to John Cole, esquire, and Edmund Arnold of Dartemouth to take ships and other vessels within the counties of Devon and Cornwall for the shipment of Edward Courtenay, ‘chivaler,’ and his retinue going to sea on the king’s service, and to deliver them to him, and to take mariners for their governance.

The like to Richard Clyvedon, esquire, and William Soper of the town of Southampton in the counties of Southampton and Sussex.

May 18. Commission to Thomas Cake, master of a ship called Gracedieu of Dartemouth, to take mariners for the governance of the said ship on the king’s present voyage at sea.

The like to John Herryson, master of a ship called Marie of London.