1416.
Dec. 27. Commission to the king's esquire Robert Rodyngton, whom the king has appointed surveyor of certain works to be done with all good speed at the entrance of the port of Portsmouth, to take stone-cutters, carpenters and other artificers and labourers and provision of all things necessary for the same.
By K.

Membrane 7d.
Dec. 11. Commission to Robert Berde and William Soper to survey the works of a new ship of the king at the town of Suthampton and to take carpenters, smiths and other labourers for making the ship and timber, boards, iron and other necessaries.

Membrane 5d.
Dec. 12. Commission to Thomas Hemlemstede to take without delay 20 carters and 140 labourers to go to the town of Harefleu on certain business of the king.
By K.

1417.
Feb. 4. Commission to John Northwych, John Gray, William Waller and John Dam to enquire what lands Margery Sympryngford, tenant in chief of Richard II, held in the county of Suffolk, what they are worth, on what day she died, who is her heir, and who has occupied the lands since her death.

Feb. 9. Commission to Thomas Camoys, Thomas Ponynges and John Pelham to arrest one assuming the name of Frere Tuk and other evildoers of his retinue who have committed divers murders, homicides, robberies, depredations, felonies, insurrections, trespasses, oppressions, extortions, offences and misprisions in the counties of Surrey and Sussex, and bring them before the king and council.
By K.

Feb. 12. Commission to Robert Hill, John Arundell, knight, steward of Cornwall, Richard Resprena, Stephen Baut and John Trelowenyng to enquire into the complaint of the burgesses of Liskeret that whereas Edmund, earl of Cornwall, by writing which the king has confirmed granted to them at fee-farm the borough with the rent of the same and the mills of Bodgara and Lomulle and all their multure, and all tenants of the borough and the manor of Liskeret and the towns of Trewythelen, Treher, Lene, Litelfursdon, Tenpellowe, Torre, Rosnon and Sturte have since done and ought to do suit at the mills and the burgesses have been seised of such suit and multure, lately the tenants of the said manor and towns have refused to do suit.

Feb. 13. Commission to William Cheyne, John Martyn, William Paulet and John Sparwe to enquire what lands John Pomeray, 'chivaler,' tenant in chief, held in the counties of Devon and Cornwall, what they are worth, on what day he died, and who is his heir.

Feb. 16. Commission to William Alyngton, Roger Hunt, Nicholas Caldecote and John Ansty to enquire who killed Henry Helperby at Cantebrygg and assaulted John Hore, esquire, and David Walssheman there.

Feb. 10. Commission to the king's kinsman Edward Courtenay, 'chivaler,' and William Talbot, 'chivaler,' to supervise the muster of Thomas