the death of Robert, last bishop, so long as they are in the king's hands, with knights' fees and advowsons, without rendering anything to the king. By K.

April 20. Grant for life to the king's servant Thomas Mansfeld, one of the clerks of the king's chapel, of 6d. daily from Easter last from the issues of the petty custom in the port of Lenne, co. Norfolk; in lieu of a like grant to John Breuster, late one of the yeomen of the pantry of the king's father, by letters patent of the said king and the king's confirmation, surrendered. By p.s.

May 1. Commission, for half a year, to David Andever to take salt and freshwater fish in the west and south for the expenses of the household, and carriage for the same.

May 8. Pardon to Richard Laken, 'chivaler,' late sheriff of Salop, in consideration of his great costs and losses in office, of 40£ from the moneys with which he is charged in his account at the Exchequer. By K.

April 28. Pardon, with the assent of the council, to the king's knight Richard Redeman, late sheriff of York, in consideration of his great losses and damages in office, of 80£ from the sums in which he will be debtor in his account at the Exchequer. By K.

May 8. Exemption for life of the king's knight Richard Redman from being made sheriff or escheator. By K.

May 10. Licence for Patrick Rede, born in Ireland, to dwell for life in England. By K.

May 8. Pardon to Thomas Surteys, 'chivaler,' John Haukeswell of Helperby, Thomas Newesom, John de Baxby, Thomas de Crathorne of Marton, John Shipley of Themelby, Thomas Blawfront of Castileveynton, John de Cridelyngton of Cridelyngton and Robert Topcliff, late collectors of two tenths and two fifteenths granted to the king by the laity in the North Riding in the county of York in the second year, of all fines, issues and amercements for their default at the Exchequer because of non-appearance; and pardon to them and Thomas Brounflete, late sheriff of York, of all their goods seized by him in the name of distraint. By K.

May 12. Grant, at the supplication of Maud Newton, a recluse at Berkyng, to Robert Chuthelegh, William Crowmere, Henry Chaderton, Stephen Ingelfeld, John Lincoln and John de la Miere, clerk, of 20 marks yearly for her natural life at the hands of the sheriffs of London to her use. By p.s.

May 14. Pardon to William Lee alias Scarburgh of the county of York, who on Monday, 10 May last, at the second hour after noon at Colbrook in the chapel situated there in the parish of Langeley Marreys, co. Buckingham, before Nicholas Ragenale by Rysburgh, coroner in the county of Buckingham, abjured the realm and accepted the cross because he confessed before the said coroner that he stole from one John Hostiller of Bagshote 8d. and a pair of knives worth 6d. By K.