1417.

Membrane 24—cont.

June 28. Pardon to Thomas Payn, indicted of having on 1 December, 4 Henry V, struck one John Prous on the head with a stick to the effusion of his brain, from which he died. By p.s.

July 4. Revocation, pursuant to the statute in Parliament of Edward III at Westminster, of letters patent of presentation of William Overton to the church of Grafton, in the diocese of Lincoln; as at the suit of Katharine late the wife of Michael de la Pole, earl of Suffolk, Thomas Erpyngham, ‘chivaler,’ William Philippes, ‘chivaler,’ Robert Bolton, clerk, and Thomas Frampton, clerk, claiming to be patrons of the church, the king directed the sheriff of Northampton to summon the said William Overton to appear before him in Chancery at a certain day now past to show cause why the letters should not be revoked, and the sheriff returned that he summoned him by Henry Wydevylle, Simon Potell, John Wryght of Grafton and John Reve of Grafton, but he did not appear, and judgement was given against him.

July 1. Grant to the good men of the town of Bristol of the county of Southampton. Bristol, who have lent to the king 1,000 marks for his present voyage and delivered them by the king’s command to the treasurer of England, that they shall have repayment of the said sum from the moneys from the subsidy of 3s. on the tun and 12d. on the pound in the port of the town after the payment of 558/. assigned there before at the hands of William Normore and Thomas Rokes, collectors, according to the form of a tally levied at the receipt of the Exchequer on 21 June last. By K.

June 1. Whereas divers dissensions, discords and debates lately arose between John Trussell, ‘chivaler,’ and William Porter, ‘chivaler,’ for the manor of Colynweston, co. Northampton, and the advowson of the church of the same town, and the king, to soothe them, by advice of the council by letters patent directed to William le Zouche, ‘chivaler,’ ordered that two persons to be chosen by John and two others to be chosen by William should have possession of the manor until further order, and the parties have made agreement and William has entered on the manor and advowson; the king pardons such entry and confirms his estate in the manor and advowson. By K.

June 4. Pardon to Richard Salle, vicar of the church of Brodesydellying, co. Dorset, whom certain jurors through malice and hatred indicted of having on the feast of the Apostles Philip and James, 4 Henry V, broken the house of Roger Webhe at Brodesydellying and ravished Margery his wife, of having on Saturday, the Assumption of St. Mary in the said year, carried off 60 sheaves of wheat in the field of Brodesydellying worth 5s. of the goods of Robert Houpere, and of having on the feast of St. Nicholas in the same year carried off a book worth 100s. in the church of Brodesydellying of the goods of the parishioners of Brodesydellying. By K.

June 4. Whereas Hugh Holyns of the county of Stafford in the time of Henry IV was convicted of divers trespasses, misprisions, rebellions, insurrections, contempts and inobediences by reason of divers defaults before the said king at the quinzaine of Trinity, 11 Henry IV, by force of an act and ordinance in Parliament at Westminster, 20 January,