1417.

Membrane 33d—cont.

Nov. 2. Commission, during pleasure, to Henry Roundell to take ships and vessels for the carriage of divers quarters of beans, peas and oats, bought by him by the king’s command for the expenses of the household in divers parts of the realm, to the king to foreign parts and mariners for the same.

The like to the following:—

Nov. 1. John Michell. By C.
Westminster.

Westminster.

July 29. Commission of over and terminator to William Cheyne, John Laurens, Robert Rodyngton and John Fromond touching certain robberies and felonies committed within the Isle of Wight. By K.

Membrane 31d.

Dec. 5. Commission to John Mosdale, serjeant at arms, to cause certain truces agreed upon between the king and his brother John, duke of Brittany and count of Montfort, to last from 16 November last until Michaelmas next, in the form contained in a schedule annexed to these present, to be proclaimed in all parts of the realm from the mouth of the Thames to the north.

The like to Robert Saperton, serjeant at arms, from the mouth of the Thames to the west.

The like to the lieutenant of the constable of Dover Castle and warden of the Cinque Ports in the said ports and other places.

The like to the sheriff in the county of Southampton.

Dec. 5. Commission to Robert Saperton, serjeant at arms, to cause proclamation to be made in all parts of the realm and other places from the mouth of the Thames to the west that certain truces made between the king and his kinsman John, duke of Burgundy, by certain commissaries of either party at London, 24 June, 1416, until Michaelmas last, within which the county of Boulogne is included, have been extended by the king’s clerks Master Henry Ware, keeper of the privy seal, licentiate in either law, and Master William Lyndewod, doctor of laws, the king’s commissaries, with the assent of the ambassadors of the duke, from Michaelmas last until Easter next inclusive, and they have consented that the county of St. Pol in the hand of the duke shall be included in the truces, and the king has caused the truces between himself and the duke for clerks, pilgrims, merchants and fishermen and their servants and goods, which have now expired, to be renewed until the said feast of Easter and from thence for a year, and it is provided that during the aforesaid truces neither the king or the duke shall allow any carracks, ships or navigable vessels to be armed or armaments, victuals or other properties of war to be put in them to make war on the other, and it is added that so long as there shall be war between the king and the city of Genoa or reprisals or marque shall last between the king and