

1417.

Membrane 28d—cont.

April 4. Commission to Thomas Carreu, 'chivaler,' to take muster of the lord of Castelhon and John Mortymer, 'chivaler,' and 150 men at arms, counting them, and 300 archers going in their company on the king's service on the safe-keeping of the sea from 1 March last for half a year from time to time during the king's present voyage and to certify thereon to the king and council. By C.

The like to the lord of Castilhon to take muster of Thomas de Carreu, 'chivaler,' and 316 men at arms, counting him, and 632 archers. By C.

March 22. Commission to Arnald Porter of Holand, 'mason,' and Henry Mortlake. Bryker of Holand, 'tyler,' to take tilers and other workmen for making tiles for the works of the house of Jesus of Bethелеem of Shene. By K.

April 14. Commission to Hugh Loterell and the sheriffs of Wilts, Somerset Westminster. and Dorset to arrest Thomas Bolt of Motecombe, co. Dorset, 'husbondman,' John Turges of Semeley, co. Wilts, 'husbondman,' and his brother and bring them immediately before the king in Chancery.

May 10. Commission of oyer and terminer to James Strangways, Richard Reading. Boseworth, Roger Floure and the sheriff, touching all treasons committed within the county of Leicester.

MEMBRANE 27d.

May 22. Commission to William Lasynby and Robert Hull to enquire Westminster. into the report that a certain person assuming the unusual name of Frere Tuk and other evildoers have entered parks, warrens and chaces of divers lieges of the king in the counties of Surrey and Sussex at divers times, hunted therein and carried off deer, hares, rabbits, pheasants and partridges, burned the houses and lodges for the keeping of the parks, warrens and chaces and threatened the keepers.

May 2. Commission to Nicholas Maudyt and John Drax, serjeants at arms, Westminster. to arrest William Anderby without delay and bring him immediately before the king in Chancery.

May 5. Commission to William Merssh and Thomas Banham, smiths, to Reading. take 40 of the better and more apt smiths within the city of London and the counties of Sussex, Surrey, Kent, Essex, Hertford, Buckingham, Middlesex, Cambridge, Northampton and Warwick for the king's present voyage to foreign parts and bring them to the said city to be ready there with their instruments on 7 June at latest, with power of arrest. By K.

MEMBRANES 26d and 25d.

May 22. Commission to Robert de Hilton, 'chivaler,' Robert Rudstane, Westminster. John Ellerker, William Kawethorn, John Barton, John Cotyngham and William Starkke to arrest John Routhe, esquire, and bring him before the king in Chancery.

Commissions of the peace in various counties. (See Appendix.) By C.