1418.

Westminster, 30 November, 1411, granting to him for life the office of parker of the park of Beverley and the keeping of the park and the deer in it with the accustomed wages as two yeomen parkers there have had, viz. 4d. daily from the issues of the manor, with the fees and other profits and commodities belonging to the office, with licence to execute the office by deputy not exceeding the state of yeoman, and (2) letters patent of the chapter of the cathedral church of York, in the absence of the dean, dated in their chapter-house, 9 December, 1411.

For ½ mark paid in the hanaper.

Membrane 16—cont.

Aug. 28. InspeXimus and confirmation to John, bishop of Norwich, and the prior and convent of the same place of letters patent dated 28 November, 4 Henry IV [Calendar, 1401-1405, p. 179], inspecting and confirming earlier letters patent and charters.

For 16d. paid in the hanaper.

Membranes 15 and 14.

Sept. 24. Pardon to William Wadham and John Wadham, for 100s. paid by them in the hanaper, of their trespass in acquiring from William son and heir of Thomas Fogge a messuage and 400 acres of marsh in Elmele and a moiety of the manor of Esthalle, held of the king in chief, to themselves and the heirs of William Wadham and entering thereon without licence.

Nov. 29. Grant to the king's clerk Robert Shirvington of the prebend of Wygynton in the collegiate church of Tamworth, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield. By K. Mandate in pursuance to J. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield. Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

Nov. 29. Presentation of Thomas ap Jevan, chaplain, to the church of Langeledewyn, in the diocese of St. Davids.

Oct. 22. Whereas Peter Hughebard of Canterbury, 'labourer,' alias of Wodecherche, was lately taken and imprisoned in the prison of the prior of Cristchurche, Canterbury, on suspicion of larceny within the precinct of the priory and broke the prison on Sunday before Palm Sunday, 5 Henry V, and fled to the church of the Friars Preachers in Canterbury, on which Walter Frogenhale, one of the king's coroners in the city, with Thomas Lane and William Lane, bailiffs of the city, came to him and asked for what cause he thus kept himself in the church, and he answered the coroner and acknowledged certain felonies, viz. the breaking of the prison and the escape from it and that on Tuesday before the Invention of the Holy Cross in the said year he killed one John Sadeler at Boreham, co. Sussex, and the coroner asked him if he would make abjuration of the realm or come out of the church to stand to the common law of the realm, and he would do neither but afterwards went out of the church and was taken in a place outside its sanctuary and was put in prison; the king pardons him for the above and for all other trespasses, misprisions and felonies committed by him before this date, except murder and rape. [Teste rege in exercitu suo.]

By p.s.