the king's fleet for the safe-keeping of the sea from 1 May next until 1 August following, as is contained in certain indentures, with full power to hear complaints, do justice in maritime cases and chastise and imprison delinquents. But it is not the king's intention that this shall be to the prejudice of the king's uncle Thomas, duke of Exeter, who has the office of admiralty for life. By C.

Presentation of Gilbert Bury, parson of the church of Crowelton, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Pysford, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the minority of Thomas son and heir of Thomas Grene, knight, tenant in chief, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Spenser.

March 15. Presentation of Thomas de Ivygill, chaplain, to the vicarage of the Westminster church of Brenset, in the diocese of Canterbury.

March 9. Grant to the king's knight John Radclyf, in lieu of another grant to him and Cecily his wife by letters patent dated 18 December, 5 Henry V [Fine Roll, 5 Henry V, m. 6], surrendered, of the keeping of two parts of the manor of Framesdene, co. Suffolk, not exceeding the value of 20l. yearly, from the death of Thomas Morley, 'chivaler,' tenant in chief, during the minority of Margaret his daughter and heireess, with her marriage without disparagement, not exceeding the value of 100 marks, and so from heir to heir, without rendering anything to the king, provided that he find a competent maintenance for the heir, maintain the houses, buildings, woods, gardens and enclosures without waste and support all charges. [Teste rege.] By p.s.

March 18. Grant for life to John William of Kyngeswore, master of a ship of the king called le Ith eu, of 20 marks yearly from the great custom in the port of Dartemouth; in lieu of grants to him and his heirs by letters patent under the seal of the principality of certain lands within the island of Anglesey, worth 20 marks yearly, which by the advice of the council were delivered to the first inheritors and by other letters patent under the great seal, surrendered, of 10 marks yearly during pleasure at the Exchequer. [Teste rege.] By p.s.

Vacated by surrender and cancelled, because by letters patent dated 28 December, 7 Henry V, the king granted to him 20 marks yearly from the customs in the port of Sulhampton.
