1418.

Membranes 5-1—cont.

a tenement of Thomas Bateman of the fee of the bishop on the east and a cottage of a bondman of the bishop now vacant on the west and containing in front by the king’s way 5 perches 9 feet.

On the west of Brodelane towards Newenham opposite the butchers’ stalls, a tenement of Thomas Wryghte, a tenement of William Stanebourne, a tenement of John White, three cottages under one roof pertaining to the house of St. John, a little cottage there lying next on the south, lying together there between a tenement pertaining to the almoner of Ely which is of the fee of the bishop on the north and a tenement of Robert Bosom of the fee of the bishop lying on the corner of Brodelane on the south and containing in front by the king’s way 12 perches 4½ feet, and the said little cottage abuts on the south end and west side on the said tenement of Robert Bosom on the said corner which is of the fee of the bishop.

On the north of Shendfordlane, two tenements of the sacristan called Prestechambre lying between a ‘cotsetill’ of the bishop on the east and a tenement of Thomas Persons which is of the fee of the bishop on the west and containing in front by the king’s way towards the south 6 perches 1 foot; a tenement of William Bandon lying there between the said tenement of Thomas Persons on the east and seven cottages from the said tenement of William Bandon to the west end of the same lane towards the red cross and containing in front by the king’s way 21 perches.

On the south of Shendfordlane, a tenement of William Conyngton lying there on the south between a tenement of Geoffrey Dounham which is of the fee of the bishop on the east and a ‘cotsetill’ of the bishop on the west and containing in front by the king’s way 5 perches.

On the north of Akermanstrete, a cottage pertaining to the sacristan lying between a tenement sometime Barettes which is of the fee of the bishop on the east and a vacant plot which is of the fee of the bishop on the west and containing in front by the king’s way 2 perches; two cottages there of Robert Bremitour lying between the said vacant plot of the bishop on the east and a tenement of a bondman of the bishop on the west and containing in front by the king’s way 4 perches less ¼ iron yard.

On the south of Akermanstrete, a tenement of John Prille lying there between a tenement of William Bok which is of the fee of the bishop on the west and a tenement Dorantus which is of the fee of the prior on the east and containing by the king’s way in front 4 perches; a tenement of John Dorante, a tenement of John Smyth, lying together opposite the way leading towards Chetesham and containing in front by the same way 6 perches ¼ iron yard.

From the red cross towards Chetesham on the west, tenements of Henry Smyth, Richard Smyth and John son of the same, lying together between a tenement now vacant called Brayrosecheyerd which is of the fee of the bishop and a tenement of the said Henry on the south which is of the fee of the bishop and containing in front by the king’s way 8 perches 3 yards 1 foot and in length from the said king’s way towards the west 5 perches 2 iron yards and abutting on the fee of the bishop; two cottages with two vacant plots adjoining between a tenement of Thomas Hakrorg on the south and a lane called Shendfordlane on the north and containing in front by the king’s way towards the west 12 perches 4 feet and abutting on the oxhouse of the almoner which is of the fee of the bishop.