On the north of Catteslane towards the way leading towards Dounham, a vacant tenement now in the tenure of Agnes Paleys and before in the tenure of John Duke lying in Catteslane between a vacant plot on the corner which is of the fee of the bishop on the east and a tenement of Richard Broke which is of the fee of the bishop on the west and containing in front in Catteslane 3 perches less 3 feet and in length 5 perches towards the north.

On the south of Catteslane to a tenement of the archdeacon of Ely, a tenement of Agnes Squiller lying between a garden of the archdeacon on the east and a tenement of Edmund Cotermong on the west and containing in front in Catteslane opposite a tenement of Robert Rote by the highway 2 perches 3 feet.

From the corner where John Duke dwells to the west street leading towards Dounham, a tenement of John Duke lying on the corner containing in the east front by the king’s way leading towards Chetesham 3 perches 9 feet and in the south front by the way leading towards Dounham 2 perches 5½ feet; a tenement of William Latoner, a tenement of Henry Taillour, lying together between a little lane called Blakelane by a tenement Roughams on the east of the fee of the bishop and a corner on the west of the tenement of the said Henry Taillour and containing in front towards the south 2 perches 3½ iron yards; a tenement of John Nyker containing in front by the king’s way towards le Grene 2 perches 2½ yards, its north head abutting on Catteslane, and lying between a tenement pertaining to the hospital of St. John which is of the fee of the bishop on the east and a tenement of John Deresson on the west and containing in front by Catteslane 3 perches 3 iron yards; a tenement of John Brunne, a tenement of John Warner, two tenements of John Warde and a tenement of Robert Salman, lying together between a tenement of Eustace Handleys on the east and a tenement of Richard Smyth the younger on the west of the fee of the bishop and containing in front by the king’s way opposite le Grene 9 perches less 1½ iron yards and the said tenements of John Brunne and John Warner containing in front towards the north 11 perches ½ iron yard and in breadth on the north head 5½ perches and the said two tenements of John Warde abutting on a garden of Robert Salman towards the north.

On the east of Dounhamstrete to Catteslane, a tenement of Thomas Chaloner the elder and a tenement of William Burwell now of John Bladcsmyth lying between tenements pertaining to the hospital of St. John which are of the fee of the bishop on the south and a tenement of John Shephird which is of the fee of the bishop towards the west and containing in front by the king’s way 7½ perches less 1 iron yard; two tenements of Margery Clarez, two tenements of Thomas Chaloner the younger, lying between Catteslane on the south and a tenement now vacant which is of the fee of the bishop on the north and containing in front by the king’s way towards Dounham 4½ perches less ¾ iron yard and in length towards the east 7½ perches.

On the west of the same street, a tenement of Richard Hendyman, a tenement of John Chaloner the younger, two tenements of Thomas Tilere the elder, a tenement of Henry Pope, a tenement of Ralph Smale, lying together between a cottage of the fee of the bishop on the north and a lane leading towards Westfen called Smalescorner on the south and containing in front by the king’s way 14 perches less 3 feet; the tenements of the said Richard Hendyman, John Chaloner and Thomas Tyllere abutting towards the west on land of a bondman