1418.

Membranes 27d—25d.

April 11. Commission to the king’s kinsman Henry, earl of Northumberland, John Normanville and William Stapulton to supervise the musters of the men at arms, armed men and archers of the retinue of the king’s brother Thomas, duke of Clarence, going to the king, on Thursday, 14 April next, at Cristchurch, and certify thereon to the council. By C.

The like to John Pelham, ‘chivaler,’ John Uvedale, esquire, Richard Spicer and the sheriff of Southampton for the retinue of Gilbert Umfraville at Wallopesford. By C.

April 16. The like to H. archbishop of Canterbury, the king’s clerk Master Henry Ware, keeper of the privy seal, elect of Chichester, John Pelham, ‘chivaler,’ and William Fulthorpe, ‘chivaler,’ for the king’s uncle Thomas, duke of Exeter, and his retinue and the retinue of the king’s kinsman the count of Morteyn and Henry Fitz Hugh, ‘chivaler,’ on Monday next at Southampton. By C.

April 18. The like to the king’s clerk Master Henry Ware, elect of Chichester, keeper of the privy seal, and Richard Spicer, esquire, for the retinue of the king’s kinsman Edward Holand, ‘chivaler,’ on Friday next at Southampton.

Commissions of the peace in various counties. [See Appendix.] By C.

Membrane 24d.

June 22. Commission to William Godday to take timber, boards and other things and carriage for the same and carpenters called ‘shipwrightes’ and other artificers and labourers for making a ship of the king called Thomas de la Toure and a balinger of the king called Gabriell Harftewe de la Toure.

Commission to William Shirt, ‘ferrour,’ to take ironworkers and other labourers for making great chains of iron for the king’s great ships called Ihesu, le Holigost and la Trinite Roiall de la Toure and the king’s carracks.

July 9. Commission to William Soper and Nicholas Banastre to take a competent ship with masters and mariners for its governance for the passage of Thomas Treverek, esquire, and certain men in his company to Normandy by the king’s command and deliver it to him with speed. By C.

July 6. Commission to H. archbishop of Canterbury to array the clergy of his province, religious and secular, exempt and non exempt, for the defence of the realm and the English church and the Catholic faith while the king is in foreign parts for the recovery of the inheritance and rights of the crown, and to certify thereon to the king in Chancery before 1 September next. [Federa.] By C.

The like to H. archbishop of York.

July 14. Commission to John Wylicotes, esquire, Henry Foleford and the sheriff of Devon to enquire about all extortions, misprisions, concealments and trespasses within the chace of Dertemore. By C.