1419.

July 1. Grant to the king's clerk William Kynwolmersh of the deanery of Westminster, the free chapel of St. Martin le Grand, London. By K.

July 1. Pardon, for 12 marks paid in the hanaper, to Henry Godfrey and Westminster. Joan his wife of their trespass in acquiring to themselves and the heirs male of Henry of the body of Joan from Robert Cope, chaplain, William Clotton and John Tuk, clerk, the manor of Northyevell, co. Bedford, held of the king in chief, except 3 pounds of pepper which John Warde, master of the college of St. Mary, Northyevell, Roger Wellesprynge, clerk, John Boteler, William Souche and John Hyne, clerk, are bound to render yearly to the same Robert, William and John for divers lands which they hold of them as of the manor, and entering thereon without licence.

July 10. Commission, by mainprise of Roger Hunt and Roger Keston, both Westminster. of the county of Huntynndon, to John Typtoft, knight, of the keeping of all manors, lands and services late of Thomas Howse, esquire, tenant in chief, and all manors, lands, rents and services late of Joan late the wife of the said Thomas from Michaelmas last during the minority of their son and heir, with his marriage without disparagement, and so from heir to heir, rendering 300l. at the Exchequer, maintaining the houses and buildings, supporting all charges and finding a competent maintenance for the heir.

By bill of William Kynwolmersh, deputy treasurer.

July 15. Order, by advice of the council, because certain strifes and Westminster. dissensions have arisen between Joan, lady of Bergevenny, and John Skydmore, 'chivaler,' on one part and Isabel late the wife of Thomas Wallewayn, Richard Wallewayn and Richard Pecoke, chaplain, executors of the will of Thomas Wallewayn, on the other part about the right, title and possession of the manor of Langeford, co. Hereford, that the manor shall remain in the king's hands and John Merbury shall have the keeping of it in the king's name until All Saints next, with full power to collect all issues and keep them to be delivered to those to whom they shall pertain. By C.

July 14. Commission to William Asenhull, 'chivaler,' sheriff of Cambridge, Westminster. because divers strifes and dissensions have arisen between the chancellor and scholars of the University of Cambridge on one part and the mayor, aldermen and citizens of London on the other part, both claiming by pretext of divers liberties granted by charters of the king's progenitors, which the king has confirmed, to have the keeping of the assize of bread, wine and ale and the supervision of measures and weights of citizens of London coming to the fair of Sterebriège, and are pending undecided before the council, to keep the said assize of bread, wine and ale exposed for sale by the said citizens and supervise their measures and weights at the said fair next to be held, to the end that peace may be observed.

By C.

July 6. Pardon, for 10 marks paid in the hanaper, to John Audeley, esquire, Westminster. and Avice late the wife of John Goldyngton, tenant in chief, of their trespass in intermarrying without licence.