July 12. Whereas by an inquisition taken before John Grevell, late escheator in the county of Gloucester and the march of Wales adjacent, it was found that Gilbert Talbot, ‘chivaler,’ deceased, was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor of Payneswyke, co. Gloucester, held of the king in chief, and long before his death, viz. on 1 June, 2 Henry V, by the name of Gilbert, lord Talbot, knight, granted it to Richard Talbot, clerk, his brother, William Stanley the elder, knight, John Hanmer, James Holte and Walter Wodeborn and their heirs and assigns, and they were seised of it and continued their estate in it during his life, without licence, and the manor has been taken into the king’s hands on that account; the king, for 40l. paid in the hanaper, pardons the trespasses in this.

Like pardon, for 30l. paid in the hanaper, on a like finding by an inquisition taken before Thomas de la Hay, late escheator in the county of Hereford and the march of Wales adjacent, that the said Gilbert granted the manor of Eccleswalle, the lordship of Irchenfeld and the manor of Wormelow with the hundred of the same, co. Hereford, held of the king in chief, by charter indented dated at Southampton, 15 July, 5 Henry V, to Richard Talbot, clerk, his brother, William Beauchamp of Poywik, knight, Thomas Mulle, Robert Whytyngton, John Walsshe of Chester and Walter Wodborne, esquire, and their heirs and assigns by the name of his manor of Eccleswalle, co.
