1419.

Membrane 14—cont.

Nov. 8. Commission, by mainprise of Peter de Legh, knight, and James de Westminster, Legh, both of the county of Chester, to John Savage, knight, of the keeping of all lands late of John Bromley, knight, tenant in chief, during the minority of William his son and heir, with the marriage of the latter without disparagement, and so from heir to heir, rendering 300 marks at the Exchequer, viz. 100 marks at Martinmas next, 100 marks at Easter following and 100 marks at Martinmas following, maintaining the houses and buildings, supporting all charges and finding a competent maintenance for the heir.

By bill of William Kynwolmersh, deputy treasurer.

Nov. 6. Commission to the prior of St. Martin, Dover, and Geoffrey Louthre, Westminster, squire, to survey all defects (as on p. 247) within the castle of Dover and certify to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer from time to time concerning all such defects repaired by the king’s brother Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, constable of the castle, and the cost of the same.

By bill of William Kynwolmersh, deputy treasurer.

Nov. 10. Presentation of the king’s clerk Robert Frye to the church of Lughtburgh, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king’s gift by reason of the minority of John son and heir of Henry, late lord of Beaumont, tenant in chief.

By K.

Nov. 15. Presentation of John Staleham, parson of the church of Assheby, Westminster, in the diocese of Norwich, to a moiety of the church of Brendewenham, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with William Smyth.

Nov. 13. Presentation of the king’s clerk John Osborn to the church of Westminster. Seint Ewa, in the diocese of Exeter.

Membrane 13.

Nov. 26. Commission to Simon Felbrygge, ‘chivaler,’ John Pylyngton, Westminster, ‘chivaler,’ Thomas Wodevill, Thomas Wake, John Longvill, Thomas Mulso and John Catesby to treat among themselves about a loan to be paid to the king for the resistance of the malice of his enemies and the conservation of the rights and safe-keeping of the realm and to induce all other sufficient secular lieges of the king of the county of Northampton to pay the loan, any ecclesiastical persons who will provide the king with greater sums on the Purification next excepted, and to certify thereon to the treasurer of England or his deputy before 24 January next. It is ordained in the last Parliament that a third part of a tenth and a fifteenth from laymen payable at Martinmas, 1420–1, shall be assigned for the payment of this loan and the chancellor shall make letters patent, writs and other warrants necessary for the payment without charge. [Feodera.]

The like to the following:—
