1419.
Dec. 12. Commission to Robert Purfote, carpenter, to take carpenters called shipwryghtes’ for the repair of two ships of the king called Thomas and Katerine de la Toure at Westgrenewych and timber, boards and other necessaries and carriage for the same.

Dec. 3. Commission to John Fray to enquire by oath of good men within the liberty of Haverung atte Boure whether Joan late the wife of Roger Swynarton, esquire, after the king’s last crossing to his duchy of Normandy dissised Gerard Braybrook, ‘chivaler,’ and Robert Darcy of their tenements in Haverung atte Boure called ‘Bretonsland’ and still occupies them and receives the issues.

1420.
Feb. 16. Commission to John Coventry of Devyse to take horses and carts Westminster. for carriage for the repair of the castle of Devyse. By C.

Feb. 14. Commission, during pleasure, to William Soper to enquire by oath Westminster. of good men of each county where the king’s ships, barges, balings or vessels are in the ports of the realm about any cables, cords, anchors, masts, sails, guns and other stuff carried off from the same, and to send the inquisitions into the Exchequer from time to time. By C.

Feb. 18. Commission to John Haulcy, esquire, to take a ship called la Marie Westminster. of Dertemuth, of which Gervase Jakeman is owner and John Holman master, to serve the king on his next voyage at sea, and mariners for its governance.

MEMBRANE 6d.
Feb. 4. Commission to Henry Roundell, Richard Clopham and John Somer Westminster. to take ships for the carriage of beans and oats bought in the realm to the duchy of Normandy, and mariners and other men for the same, and bring them with all speed to the port which may seem most expedient.

Feb. 6. Commission to John Boson, John Dymok, John Mulys and John Westminster. Lauerence to enquire what lands Richard Champarnon, tenant in chief, held in the county of Devon, what they are worth, on what day he died and who is his heir.

Feb. 7. Commission to John Hawley and John Mayhewe to enquire what Westminster. lands John Carmynowe, esquire, tenant in chief of Henry IV, held in the counties of Devon and Cornwall, what they are worth, on what day he died, who is his heir and who has occupied the lands since his death.

Feb. 20. Commission to the mayor and sheriffs of Bristol and Robert Westminster. Russell, merchant, to take ships for the passage of the king’s kinsman the earl of Ormond, lieutenant of Ireland, and his soldiers, servants, horses and harness to Ireland and mariners for their governance in the port of the said town, certifying the king in council of the day of sailing before 31 March next. By C.